What Paris Decrees

The Winter Woman Is Longer, Leaner

By ALINE MOSBY

PARIS (UPI)—Paris has turned out a winter-woman who is longer, leaner and shows less of her legs.

The fashion shows here wound up with the unveiling of Cristobal Balenciaga's 1962-63 line. The world can rest assured that the female shape will not change drastically this fall and winter, but it will be modified by slightly longer skirts and suit jackets, stovepipe sleeves to the wrist, flat shoulders and higher waist lines.

Exceptions and counter-trends included waist-length jackets and three-quarter sleeves.

MANY DESIGNERS, such as Marc Bohan at Dior and J. H. Crahay at Nina Ricci, did not lengthen their skirts. Italians Simonetta and Fabiani stressed coats with deep shawl collars and loose, full shoulders.

Experts agreed, however, that the trend is toward lengthening and narrowing of the line. All designers cut more and more clothes closer to the body.

According to buyers who viewed them all, Balenciaga and Hubert Givenchy are still the "greats" of high fashion, and they both held generally to a narrow line. Of other couturiers, 26-year-old Yves St. Laurent drew the most raves with a downright skinny line dubbed the "tube."

Buyers called Marc Bohan's Dior line the most commercial for the general world-wide market. Although it was a "triangle" shape, it, too, was longer and leaner.

OTHER TRENDS:

—Cocktail dresses: Black crepe sheaths were the most popular, often with stoles or capes attached. Usually low cut in back.

—Culottes: Nearly every designer showed some, from Dior's fake culotte skirt (actually a big center seam on a slightly flaring skirt) to culottes on daytime gray wool dresses by Guy Laroche. For home entertaining, floor-length culottes are definitely "in."

—Coats: Traditional coats, with back fullness, still were in the fall lines, but more narrow coats were shown, as well as the gently flaring "princess" line.

—Another new look was the "bathrobe" coat, developed by Antonio Castillo for Lanvin, a casual, wide-collared coat tied at the waist.

—EVENING dresses: mostly floor length, lavishly beaded and embroidered, often with matching jackets or coats.

—Color: The big new color was purple for everything from evening gowns and cocktail suits to daytime wool suits.

—Fur trim: For collars and cuffs on tweed suits and cocktail suits and hems or necklines of evening gowns.

—Muffled up look: Men's mufflers attached to suits or worn separately, hoods lined with fur, big stand-up collars coming to the nose.

—Leather: Leather coats, blouses, caps, both in suede or shiny leather. One popular evening fabric is "cire satin" which looks like leather.

—Fox fur and ostrich feathers can be dragged out of great-grandmother's trunk. Fox trim on daytime suits was popular, and ostrich feathers were used to trim evening and cocktail stoles and dresses.

LUNCHEON AND BOUTIQUE

Center's Member Groups Will Present Next Summer Luncheon

For the first time in the 16 years that the Northgate Group has presented summer luncheons at the Marin Art and Garden Center in Ross the member organizations of the center have joined hands to sponsor one of the weekly events.

Wednesday's luncheon and fashion show will be a joint effort by the Marin Society of Artists, Marin Conservation League, Garden Society of Marin, Ross Valley Players, Marin Music Chest, Marin Nature Group, Marin Garden Club and by the center's affiliate groups, namely, Decorations Guild, Pixie Parents, Inc., Junior Theatre of Marin and the Northgate Group.

VOLUNTEERS WILL serve as models and waitresses, under the direction of Mrs. Edward J. Ruff, chairman of the 1962 luncheon series.

Chairmen of the waitresses from the participating groups will be Mrs. Harvie M. Freed and Mrs. Peter H. Skaer for the 12 volunteers from the Northgate Group; Mrs. W. H. Berry Jr. for the 10 workers from Pixie Parents; Mrs. D. A. Pease for the eight Junior Theatre members; Mrs. Charles E. Sayers for eight Ross Valley Players; Mrs. Jerrol L. Flood for four from the Marin Society of Artists, and Mrs. Alma I. Cannon for the six volunteers from the Decorations Guild.

Models and their organizations are Mesdames William G. Morrisey Jr., John B. Willcutt and Boyd R. Lang of Ross Valley Players; Mesdames Max Thelen and Edwin Burmester of the Marin Society of Artists; Mesdames Robert S. Cary and Floyd R. Gilman, Northgate Group; Mrs. Dion Ramsey-Raisin, Decorations Guild; Miss Judith Conrow, Ross-Kentfield-Greenbrae Unit of Junior Theatre of Marin; Miss Sandy Strom, Northgate Juniors; Mesdames Christopher Donohue, Richard O'Brien, Luciano Sabella, Norman Sanguinetti, James McKenney of Pixie Parents. Mrs. H. Wallace Hickman will model for both Northgate and the Marin Garden Club. Mrs. Les Vogel Jr. will represent both Pixie Parents and Northgate Group.

SPEAKING OF BASEBALL

EASTERN ARTIST COUPLE ARE GUESTS IN SOUTHERN MARIN

Distinguished guests of the Cyril Wrights in Homestead Valley last week were Louis and Marian Bouche of New York and Europe.

Mrs. Bouche, Mrs. Wright's sister, and an artist herself, and her husband were on their first visit to the West Coast after Bouche had completed a six months' residence in art at the American Academy of Art in Rome.

Bouche painted all the murals for the Eisenhower Memorial Library in Abilene, Kan., and the murals in the Treasury Building, Washington, D. C.

At a party the Wrights gave honoring their guests Bouche made some comments of special interest to the artists present. About art in California, he said, "I see a return to nature. The younger men are going back to representative art, and this is having an effect in the East."

The Bouches left for New York last weekend, where Bouche will begin work on a portrait of Robert M. Lovett, former Secretary of Defense under Presidents Roosevelt and Truman and who is now a banker .

Teen-Agers Join Volunteers For Work In Local Hospital

In addition to summer fun, jobs and family vacations, many of Marin's teen-agers are devoting time to volunteer work.

Among them a dozen high school girls have joined the ranks of the "Junior Candy Stripers" at San Rafael General Hospital.

Eleven of the new junior volunteers are students at San Rafael High School, and the 12th, Eleanora Nielsen of Fairfax, attends the College of Marin.

The San Rafael High School students are Cindy Wirt, Marty Shortridge, Judy Herrman, Gail Shanahan, Linda Lahmann, Nadeline Morgan, Bonnie Greene, Vicki Kagan, Barbara Finnigan, Judy Kollgaard and Donna Ziemer.

Most of the new juniors plan to continue their volunteer work when school starts in September, and several are interested in medical or nursing careers, according to Mrs. Lawrence McNear, director of volunteers.

Before starting work at the hospital the girls are given an orientation and training course by Mrs. McNear, Mrs. Leiton J. Elder and Mrs. Arthur J. Schallock. Then they are scheduled for regular work from 4 to 6 p.m., taking over from members of the senior volunteers, who work the earlier shifts.

The girls don hospital gowns over their street clothes until they are qualified volunteers, and then wear the uniform of red and white candy-striped pinafore with white blouse.

Collared Trend

NEW YORK (UPI)—The one biggest trend in necklaces for fall and winter is the collared look. The Fashion Coordination Institute, representing the jewelry industry, said the collars undoubtedly are inspired in part by the "Cleopatra" trend in fashion. They show in everything from fragile gold chains to big stones, chain and bead combinations to be worn either high as dog collars or wide and flat around the neckline.

'LINE DOES A LOT'

Mr. Kenneth Predicts Demise Of The Highly Teased Tresses

By GAY PAULEY

A hairdresser whose customers are perennials on the best-dressed list predicts that a wave of sleeker hairdos is surging into fashion.

The new coiffures will not be plastered to the head, not that sleek, said Kenneth Battelle. But they will make the beehives and bouffants as dated as the marcel.

"IT'S JUST a natural rebellion," said Battelle. "Women soon tire of the bizarre." The forthcoming trend, as seen by Battelle, will put the hair closer to the face than in previous seasons, but still puff out at the crown and back — "We have learned in the last five years," said Battelle, "that a little exaggeration of line does a lot for a head of hair."

Battelle is better known as Kenneth—the only name he uses in the hairdressing world where his skill will comb and brush has pushed him into a limelight few hairdressers ever enjoy.

MAGAZINES have profiled "The Boy from Syracuse" (he was born in Syracuse, N.Y., 35 years ago), customers travel from all parts of the country for a Kenneth styling, and Kenneth in turn travels to them when they need their hair done for an important occasion.

He went to Washington to dress Mrs. John F. Kennedy's hair for the inauguration festivities, he does the hair of Mrs. Kennedy's sister, Princess Radziwill, when she is in New York, he did that of Queen Sirikit of Thailand on a recent world trip, and counts both Mrs. William Paley and Mrs. Norman K. Winston as regular customers. All five have appeared on best dressed lists in recent years.

Kenneth is reluctant to talk about his customers—"Getting your hair done should be a private affair," he said. "How would you feel if every time you got a haircut or changed the style your hairdresser shouted the news to the world?"

But someday, he added, he may write a book about some of his experiences with VIPs — "When everybody can laugh with me."

"I WILL SAY, the more important they are, the easier they are to get along with," said Kenneth. "The ones who give you trouble are the ones on the way up—or on the way down.

"I THINK we're in an era of great hair dressing . . . women are benefiting with all the improvements in the tools, the chemicals. Hair has never been prettier." (UPI)

Kennedy Due In California Aug. 18; 'Not Campaigning'

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The first definite details of President Kennedy's forthcoming "non political" trip later this month to the upper Middle West and California were announced today by the White House.

The president plans to leave Washington Aug. 17 and return the morning of Aug. 20 after speeches in South Dakota and California.

Only two definite engagements were announced today, but others will be added later.

Press Secretary Pierre Salinger said that on Aug. 17 the president would visit the Oahe Dam outside Pierre, S.D. Kennedy will turn a switch starting electric current flowing from the dam through transmission lines into states of the upper Midwest.

On Aug. 18 the president will speak during ground breaking ceremonies for the San Luis Project at Los Banos, Calif.

The project is a federal-state cooperative undertaking in which a dam and about 100 miles of canals will be added to the California state water plan.

Kennedy is scheduled to visit the dam at noon on Aug. 18.

The White House said final plans had not been made for the nights of the 17th and 18th. But the president is expected to leave California the night of Aug. 19, arriving back in Washington the next morning.

One of the primary purposes of the so-called non-political trip is to generate public support of the administration's program in Congress and thus encourage the election of House and Senate members friendly to the Kennedy program.

The president will spend the weekend of Aug. 10-13 in Maine. He will visit a statewide gathering at Brunswick on the afternoon of Aug. 10, then spend the rest of the weekend in seclusion at the home of former heavyweight champion Gene Tunney.

Salinger said Tunney had made his home available to the president but would not be there during Kennedy's visit. The president will be accompanied by a group of friends to be identified later.

Gay, Shoving Crowds Force Ike To Cancel Cologne Tour

BONN (UPI) — Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower today abandoned plans to tour Cologne because he feared police were too few to handle the crowds.

At mid-day Eisenhower's grin became only a tight smile when he left his hotel where an estimated 8,000 yelling, clapping Germans had gathered.

The former president lunched in Bonn with President Heinrich Luebke, a fellow "farmer." The two men had an hour-long private talk in Luebke's sitting room while their wives went upstairs to the palais Hammerschmidt "flower room" to watch the boats go by on the crowded Rhine River at the foot of the presidential garden.

The square in front of Eisenhower's Cologne hotel, filled until well past midnight, was jammed again early today with a crowd estimated at 5,000.

When the former president finally came down from his room for the drive to Bonn, he appeared annoyed at the crowd's behavior.

A German radio reporter shoved a microphone at Eisenhower as he came out of the hotel door, and asked how he liked Germany.

Ike replied shortly, "fine. Wonderful."

Cologne police officers, for their part, complained to reporters that Eisenhower changed his plans to often.

Supreme Court Last Hope For Mrs. Duncan

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) —An appeal to a U. S. Supreme Court justice is the next step open to Elizabeth M. Duncan in her quest to avoid execution in the San Quentin gas chamber Wednesday.

Gov. Edmund G. Brown refused clemency yesterday to her and the two men she hired to kill her pregnant daughter-in-law in 1958.

A few hours later the State Supreme Court turned down her request for a writ of habeas corpus and a stay of execution. The court said "This is final forthwith" meaning it won't hear the matter again.

Mrs. Duncan, 58, is scheduled to enter San Quentin's gas chamber at 10 a.m. netx Wednesday, to be followed three hours later by Luis Moya, 23, and Augustine Baldonado, 28.

The often-married Mrs. Duncan has never admitted hiring them to kill Olga Duncan, 30, in Ventura County in 1958.

The governor's decision came after an emotion-packed 45-minute hearing in Sacramento Wednesday. He said Thursday, "I am unable to find circumstances to warrant commutation. I will not intervene in these cases."

Mrs. Duncan said from the women's prison at Corona. "We have other resources."

Moya said from his Death Row cell, "I honestly don't think the governor could have done anything else."

Baldonado said only, "Okay."

MAN BITTEN TWO TIMES BY RATTLERS

Before he came to California two years ago from his native Hawaii, Thomas Rodenhurst, 26, of 110 Myrtle Avenue, San Rafael, had never seen a rattlesnake. But he's getting to know them too well now.

Rodenhurst, a groundskeeper for the San Rafael city schools, was in Ross General Hospital today with his second rattler bite in four months.

Hospital authorities said he is in "fairly good condition."

Rodenhurst was bitten shortly after noon yesterday while working near a playing field of Los Galinas School.

Carpenters May Vote Down New 80½-Cent Hourly Boost

Marin County's union carpenters will take a secret vote next Wednesday on the latest 80½-cents-an-hour- raise offer by eight employer associations, as well as a strike sanction.

They go to the polls with an unfavorable recommendation from the District Council of Carpenters, considered an ominous sign. But there was intimation of possible further negotiations to forestall another strike crisis after the end of the recent 59-day construction shutdown.

Norman Campbell, business representative for Carpenters Union Local 35 and 1710, said that polls will be open from 7 a.m. to 9 p.m. at Carpenters Hall, 647 Lindaro Street, San Rafael.

Decision will rest with the majority of some 15,000 to 17,000 union carpenters in four counties—Marin, San Francisco, Alameda and San Mateo.

Voting in Marin will be about 1,400 members in this county. As a rule about 1,800 union carpenters are employed here but some are members of other locals and will vote at their home headquarters.

Campbell said that the negotiating committee yesterday returned with a 15½-cent increase from an original 65-cent proposal and referred it to the district council without recommendation.

The council in San Francisco last night referred the issue to the membership for a vote, but attached an unfavorable recommendation terming the offered increase "inadequate." A $1.05 increase over the present $3.95 is wanted.

This contrasted with the situation which developed recently at the time of the 65-cent offer. At that time the carpenters tentatively approved a raise of 65 cents an hour to be spread over a three-year contract period.

But the contractors later granted higher boosts to other building trades unions and this created dissatisfaction over the carpenters' anticipated 65 cents.

"Our membership revolted," said Campbell. "They would not be placed in an inferior position. So they instructed a return to negotiations."

Campbell said that notifications of the council decisions were sent out last night to the whole membership by first class mail.

Votes in the four county centers will be promptly tabulated Wednesday night, according to Campbell, with results made known at once.

The eight employer associations include the Marin Coun-

'Confession' Of Arson Suspect Still Not Entered As Evidence

The arson trial of McDonald Huffman, 35, accused of setting fire to his San Anselmo home last March, is recessed until Monday morning with a key piece of testimony — his alleged confession — still hanging in air.

Judge Richard M. Sims Jr. of Marin Superior Court is expected to rule Monday on whether or not the "confession" should be tossed out.

Huffman's daughter, Donita, 10, died in the fire which destroyed their home at 10 Ivy Lane last March 24.

Huffman insists that the only reason he "admitted" setting fire to the home is that lie detector expert George W. Harman of San Francisco threatened him with a murder charge.

Harman told the jury of nine women and three men that he did not threaten Huffman and did not use the word "murder."

Huffman's attorney, Deputy Public Defender Jerome Durham, after hearing tape-recordings of the lie detector test, charged that Harman had "threatened Mr. Huffman all the way."

Durham quoted Harman as telling Huffman, "If I send these reports in, the police will think they have a murder on their hands."

Huffman gave the same "admissions" to Police Chief Raymond Buchignani and to Dr. Samuel Anderson, a psychiatrist, immediately after the Harman interview.

The defense lawyer contends that Huffman was under the same threat of a murder charge when he made all three "admissions."

Deputy Dist. Atty. P. Roy Vallarino is prosecuting Huffman for arson.

Defense lawyer Durham declared he would seek to toss out every one of Huffman's "alleged admissions" when the trial resumes Monday.

Mechanical Brain Has Upper Hand Over Board

Kind treatment can spoil even a robot computer, it developed today.

That superhuman new Marin County "mechanical brain," the I.B.M. 1401 electronic computer soon to be delivered to the data processing bureau, was pictured by Asst. Auditor Michael Mitchell as already drunk with power after a single victory.

Mitchell went to the county supervisors last Tuesday and said that "1401," as the gadget is known familiarly, will go on strike if its comfort isn't catered to by rental of a small refrigerator unit to keep its temperature at a level between 67 and 77 degrees.

The supervisors showed a little apprehension but authorized the deal.

Now, Mitchell discovered today, he must again go to the supervisors and ask another outlay to keep 1401 from developing allergies.

"It seems we have to get a portable vacuum cleaner to collect dust," fretted Mitchell. "That danged machine is growing fussier and fussier and we

33-years career

Teacher Retires After 33 Years On Staff Of College Of Marin

With trustees president Elizabeth M. Deedy observing, "we all regret his resignation," the Marin Junior College District board last night accepted retirement of E. Dewart Lewis, 63, head of the English department.

Lewis wrote that after 33 years of teaching he would "have to accept an order" from his doctor not to return to the classroom next month.

"His many friends and former students recognize his tremendous contribution to the college and we all regret his resignation," said Mrs. Deedy.

There was no recommendation for his successor. The board voted to begin seeking one.

Lewis missed part of the fall, 1961, semester when he developed a gastric disorder and underwent surgery. After three months he returned to class and completed the school year. He decided not to return only a few days ago.

Lewis normally would have been due for retirement in June, 1964.

His forced retirement removes from the faculty a man who witnessed the growth of the college almost from its birth. It also removes the only head of the English department it ever had.

When he joined the faculty in 1929, the campus was a hayfield with an eight-room house and horse barn.

Harlan Hall, the college's first permanent building, then was being built. A. C. Olney, who helped found California's first junior college in Fresno, was president.

"In those days we conducted seven classes a day in five classrooms," said Lewis. "Our operation was more like the little red school house than a college campus. Benjamin Weed and I handled all the English classes when I came. Today we have nine instructors in the English department."

Lewis was born in Ontario, Canada, in 1899. After graduating from high school, he served for three years in the Canadian army in World War I.

He received a bachelor of arts degree from the University of British Columbia and moved to the United States in 1922.

A year later he received a master of arts degree from the University of Washington, then taught for four years at Idaho State Normal School. He be-

Giovanniello Out Of Sanitary District Race

Chairman Ralph Giovanniello of the controversy-ridden Marin County Sanitary District 2 today bowed out of a race for re-election which he said yesterday he would run.

Meanwhile, contests loomed in two other Marin sanitary districts as candidates filed before the deadline.

Giovanniello today told the Independent-Journal he had not turned in the papers at the district office in Corte Madera by yesterday's 5 p.m. deadline.

Voting on two pending vacancies will be held Sept. 11.

The district serves Corte Madera, parts of Larkspur and Greenbrae and unincorporated territory as far as Paradise Cay, Tiburon Peninsula.

The district board has been embroiled in public disputes earlier this year over its purchase of land for a new headquarters and its order temporarily "disallowing" new sewer connections.

Giovanniello's withdrawal leaves three men seeking the two director terms: Incumbent director Herbert L. Vernet, for-

WORLD NEWS IN BRIEF

Clement Wins In Tennessee

NASHVILLE ,Tenn. (UPI)—Frank G. Clement, his vote-getting ability still as sharp as his speech making, won the Democratic governorship nomination in yesterday's primary, practically assuring him the office for a third time.

Clement

Clement, 10 years older at 42 than when he first was elected governor in 1952, trounced two major opponents, Chattanooga Mayor P. R. Olgiati and Memphis City Commissioner William Farris.

With returns in from 2,445 of the state's 2,592 precincts, Clement had 269,252 votes to 193,032 for Olgiati and 178,781 for Farris.

That was about 40 per cent of the vote in a state that does not have a run-off law.

Democratic nomination is practically the same as election in Tennessee.

Other Woman Gone

ROANOKE, Va. (AP) — Linda Renfrew Cobb, who shared one end of a double life with North Carolina Republican leader William E. Cobb, is reported absent from her home.

A real estate man said yesterday the lease on her rented home is still in effect and Linda Cobb has just "taken a little vacation."

Cobb, a well-to-do lumberman, admitted last week he lived with his wife and adopted child in Morganton, N.C., but paid frequent visits to Linda Cobb and their two children in Roanoke.

Cobb resigned as North Carolina Republican chairman and stepped out of the state Senate race when his double life was disclosed.

Nuclear Reactor

BUCHANAN, N.Y. — A nuclear reactor was put into operation last night by Consolidated Edison Co., promising fission-generated electricity for millions of New Yorkers in about three weeks.

The company has been working on the Westchester County plant for 10 years and has spent 120 million dollars in developing it.

Jayne Denies Charge

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Actress Jayne Mansfield today denied charges by her husband, Mickey Hargitay, that an Italian film executive was involved with the break of their marriage.

The actress signed a formal separation agreement yesterday which contained a clause that she would not file for divorce at this time.

Tuesday Hargitay said the Italian, whom he said is married, has two children and is bankrupt, was trying to wreck his marriage.

"I think that Mickey has forgotten that I filed to divorce him a few months before I went to Rome. I regret to say that our present marital difficulties are merely a continuation of that situation."

"I am terribly fond of Mickey and wish that this step was not necessary."

Snow Job

NEW YORK (AP)—Snow doesn't do too well in 80-degree heat, but the City Sanitation Department is looking coolly ahead.

Joining the department's snow-fighting forces yesterday were 17 new salt spreaders with snow plows attached. Each machine weighs 13 tons.

In Private Schools

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Census Bureau says 13.6 per cent of the nation's school children attend church schools or other private schools.

Total school enrollment from kindergarten through the 12th grade was 40.8 million in April 1960, the bureau reported Thursday.

It said the 1960 census showed 35.3 million, or 86.4 per cent, were attending public schools.

Actress-Singer Dies

NEW YORK (AP) — Jane Romano, 33, actress-singer who scored a triumph three years ago when she filled in for Ethel Merman in "Gypsy," died yesterday. Miss Romano was suffering from Hodgkins disease.

Buenos Aires Strike Fails After 2 Days

BUENOS AIRES (UPI) — A 48-hour "general strike" called by the CGT Union Federation ended in apparent failure at midnight last night.

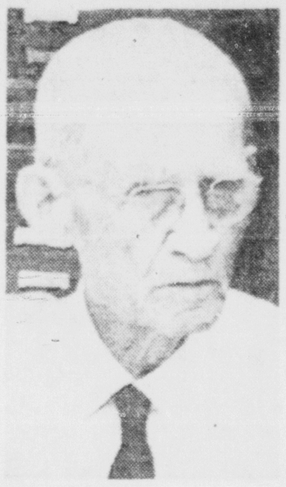

There was no immediate indication that the government would yield to CGT demands for blanket wage increases and other economic reforms to offset the skyrocketing cost of living.

A statement issued by the federation at the end of the strike blamed it on the government.

A score of persons were injured in scattered strike violence. Most of them were passengers in strike-shunning buses which were shot up, bombed or burned.

Labor Minister Galileo Puente told a news conference last night that Argentines should work hard to help ease the current economic crisis. He praised the courage of unions which boycotted the strike.

The walkout crippled transportation and forced a number of factoires to shut down, but it had little or no effect on banking or retail business.

Missing Plane Found

NEW DELHI (UPI)—A missing Royal Nepal Airlines DC-3 has been found on the Indo-Nepal border with all 10 persons aboard safe, airline officials in Patna said today.

The officials reported some of the six passengers and four crew members suffered minor injuries, apparently when the plane made a forced landing in the foothills of the Himalayas.

NEW YORK (AP) — After 25 years of being an ordinary Long Island Rail Road commuter, John K. Mountford is going to get a whole train for himself and friends — along with free food and liquid refreshments.

Mountford was told yesterday his name was selected from among 50,000 daily commuters who belong to the "Legion of Influential Rail Riders" initials which match the railroad's.

Mountford, 44, an insurance lawyer, will have at his disposal —for one day—a diesel locomotive, two deluxe parlor cars and white coated attendants to serve himself and 25 friends on an outing to Montauk, on the eastern tip of Long Island.

NO POWER TO FIGHT

Reds Eye German Pact

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP) — Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev probably will sign a separate peace treaty with Communist East Germany later this year. But it is highly unlikely he will give the German Reds the power to plunge the world into war over Berlin.

American leaders are now generally agreed that a new Berlin crisis is in the making.

They are receiving a steady flow of Soviet-inspired rumors of trouble in European capitals. They get forewarnings, too, through such acts as increased Soviet aircraft operations in the Berlin air corridors and the Red threat to shoot down an American helicopter at Berlin earlier this week.

The signs of a new flareup or crisis are growing almost every day. Yet there is also evidence that Khrushchev has not made all of his final decisions as he continues his pressure to get the United States, Britain and France to abandon West Berlin.

Problems of Berlin strategy and diplomatic and legal issues related to the peace treaty itself are assumed here to be under discussion or planned for discussion between Khrushchev and East German Communist leader Walter Ulbricht somewhere on the Black Sea. Ulbricht flew from Berlin to the Soviet Union Wednesday.

The latest direct account of Khrushchev's views was reported to Washington by retiring U.S. Ambassador Llewellyn Thompson just before he left Moscow last week. He spent considerable time with the Soviet leader a week ago Wednesday.

Khrushchev is understood to have told Thompson that he would have to make up his mind about the long-threatened peace treaty without too much further delay. He also gave Thompson to understand that he wants to develop further his case for a change in the status of West Berlin. This could mean that he intends to open up the whole issue in the United Nations General Assembly in the fall, again claiming that the continued Western occupation of the city creates a threat of war which could be eliminated if the West would bow to his demands.

Several weeks ago Kennedy called in Soviet Ambassador Anatoly Dobrynin to try to get across to Khrushchev through the envoy that the United States will not withdraw from West Berlin and will if necessary use force to defend the Communist-encircled city. No one here is really sure yet that Khrushchev believes this message.

Kennedy and Secretary of State Dean Rusk are known to believe, however, that if any doubt remains in Khrushchev's mind about Western intentions, it is a fairly small one.

The best informed officials here believe that in the end Khrushchev will choose to avoid war but that he will go through with the peace treaty threat.

Official Washington is all but convinced, however, that Khrushchev will see that the treaty contains some provision specifying reserve rights for the Soviet Union on the more critical Berlin problem. Otherwise Khrushchev would be in the position of giving Ulbricht a much freer hand in determining the fateful future of the Berlin problem than it seems to be in the Soviet Union's interest.

The power to force the issue on Berlin is the power to start World War III. And no one in the government here believes that Khrushchev wants to spread that kind of power beyond the confines of the Kremlin.

Shell-Nixon Truce Called During State GOP Meeting

SACRAMENTO (AP) — California's Republican Party, with all its factions and feuding, appeared today to have called a truce for its state convention here over the weekend.

Some differences may arise over state issues, GOP leaders said, but no serious battle is expected.

The prospect of a clash between Nixon and Shell followers dimmed with renewed assurances by Assemblyman Joseph C. Shell of Los Angeles that he has no plans to challenge Richard Nixon's control of the party organization.

"As far as I am concerned," Shell told a reporter, "I believe it is necessary and the prerogative of the gubernatorial nominee to have the man he wants as chairman. I respect that right totally."

Nixon favors former San Francisco Assemblyman Casper W. Weinberger for chairman of the Republican State Central Committee and Dr. Gaylord Parkinson, 44-year-old San Diego physician, for Weinberger's present spot as vice chairman.

The party posts alternate between Northern and Southern California each two years. John Krehbiel of Los Angeles is the outgoing chairman.

Shell said he had policy differences with Weinberger, an early Nixon backer in his race for governor, but that he would not oppose him. Would he vote for him? "Sure," said Shell.

Nixon's primary election opponent and leader of the Republican right wing previously endorsed Dr. Parkinson for vice chairman. Weinberger is considered a party moderate and Parkinson lists himself as a conservative.

Both the Republican and the tiny Prohibition parties will hold their biennial state conventions at the Capitol Saturday. The central committees meet Sunday. The Democrats will stage similar sessions here Aug. 24-25.

Pre-platform meetings were planned today, and Republican nominees scheduled a conference to discuss campaign issues and strategy.

Former Sen. William F. Knowland will address the GOP convention Saturday. Nixon and Rep. Charles Gubser of Gilroy will speak Sunday. Sen. Thomas H. Kuchel, a candidate for re-election, was to have spoken Sunday but a convention spokesman said he canceled his talk because of an eye infection.

Lockheed Wins Big Missile Job

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Navy has awarded two contracts totaling 64 million dollars to Lockheed Missile & Space Co., Sunnyvale, Calif. for work on Polaris missiles, Sen. Clair Engle, D-Calif., announced today.

One contract for 55 million dollars is for continuous research and development of the Polaris missile system.

The second, for 9 million dollars, is for tactical, production and sustaining engineering services on the Polaris.

Doctors Toss Theories On Fats On The Fire

CHICAGO (UPI)— The American Medical Assn. yesterday said a 3½-year study failed to prove a direct link between diet or blood fat concentrations and hardening of the arteries.

Despite the fact that "no direct causal relationship" was indicated by the exhaustive tests, the AMA's Council on Foods and Nutrition said "it appears logical to attempt to reduce high concentrations of cholesterol (and other fats in the blood) as an experimental therapeutic procedure."

"Statistical studies suggest that a relationship between diet, blood cholesterol and the rate of coronary artery disease exists in some populations," the report said. Only clinical proof of the relationship is lacking, the AMA said.

If there is a direct causal relationship between cholesterol concentrations and hardening of the arteries, the AMA said, diet control could be an effective method of dealing with the problem.

"Studies have established, at least in experimental conditions, that substitution of polyunsaturated vegetable oils for animal fats in the diet of man resulted in a reduction of blood cholesterol," the report indicated.

The terms animal and vegetable, and saturated and unsaturated, however, are inadequate, the AMA said. "Butter and coconut oil can be shown to raise serum cholesterol, whereas corn oil and whale oil can lower it," the report said. Additionally, "neither all saturated fatty acids nor all unsaturated fatty acids are identical in their effects upon serum cholesterol concentrations in man."

A low fat diet, however, is not effective in treating abnormally high concentrations of cholesterol in the blood, the AMA said. "The effect of simple reducing fat intake is to lower blood cholesterol but raises blood triglyceride concentration," the report warned.

Triglyceride, like cholesterol, has been associated with hardening of the arteries.

The report was the AMA's first official statement on the controversial cholesterol question.

New Atomic Particle Has Short, Short Life

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — UCLA physicists recenily discovered a new atomic particle, the Xi star.

It is described as the latest addition to a group of extremely short-lived sub-nuclear particles called "resonances."

The XI particle lives only the fraction of a second represented by 5 preceded by 23 zeroes, according to the professors who discovered it.

MOTHER SAVES 7 CHILDREN FROM FLAMES

SOMERDALE, N.J. (UPI)—A mother of seven children dropped one child from a second story window of their burning home yesterday and then carried the others to safety two at a time.

Mrs. Margaret Walsh, 34, discovered the fire in the living room while feeding her daughter, Christine, 11 months.

She ran upstairs, threw a bunk bed out of the window and urged the children to jump onto it. They were afraid, so she dropped Colleen, 3, onto the bed and carried the others down the stairs.

Her husband, Joseph, was at work at the time. The mother and Christine received face burns.

3 Die Fighting Flames In Sierra Forest Fire

MARIPOSA, Calif., (UPI) — Three firefighters were killed and three others seriously burned yesterday when a 175-acre forest fire flared up out of control and swept over them.

Observers from a borate tanker bombarding the blaze said that the men were ahead of the fire lines, fighting the fire, when it suddenly engulfed them. The tanker dropped its borate directly on the spot, but without success.

The dead men were identified as Martin F. Georgi, 39, Mariposa, of the U.S. Conservation Service; and Thomas V. Foley, 39, and John V. Rasch, 46, Mariposa, U.S. Forest Rangers. Taken to John C. Fremont Hospital in Mariposa with serious burns were Kent Stoel, 24, and Ray E. Cahpin, 40, both of Mariposa; while Raymond St. Pierre, 23, Merced, was flown by helicopter to a Merced Hospital.

The blaze, called the Timberlodge Fire, broke out near Midpines, six miles northeast of Mariposa yesterday afternoon.

Common Market Talks Come To Farm Prices

BRUSSELS (UPI)—Negotiations on British entry into the European Common Market turned today to the farm problem following settlement of a key issue concerning the country's membership application.

The six-member economic community agreed yesterday to allow certain members of Britain's vast commonwealth to have associate membership in the common market if England joins.

The negotiations turned today to the question of what tariffs would be applied to agricultural experts from Canada, Australia and New Zealand under British membership.

The six common market members are France, Italy, West Germany, Belgium, The Netherlands and Luxembourg.

The British negotiators, headed by Edward Heath, have asked that commonwealth farm exports be kept at the same trade level they now enjoy under the preferential trade system with the United Kingdom.

Other commonwealth nations whose tariff systems will be scrutinized today are India, Pakistan and Ceylon.

The common market partners have indicated willingness to conclude by the end of 1966 a trade agreement with these countries aimed at developing their currency resource.

Will Michigan Bears Go Begging?

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP) — Need a couple of black bears or some foxes, racoons or a deodorized skunk?

Or how about some turtles—eight different kinds?

The University of Michigan Museum has three months to find homes for these animals, or have them destroyed, said Dr. Irving G. Reimann, director.

The animal cage and reptile pit at the rear of the museum building must go to make way for a new $1 million building that will serve as a national center for research in animal biosystematics.

Building Boom Gathers Steam In Los Angeles

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Home construction is expected to increase by 41.8 per cent in the Los Angeles metropolitan area by 1970 to an annual rate of 117,000 new units, according to the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce.

In 1960, by comparison, builders started 82,500 new units.

'Freeze' Of Park Land Disputed

Prospects for a county supervisorial battle over the proposed "freeze" on land use and construction in West Marin loomed in a panel discussion of the proposed national seashore area on radio KTIM's "Marin Sounding Board" yesterday. A tape recording will be rebroadcast at 12:30 p.m. Sunday.

Supervisor Peter Behr, who has asked County Counsel E. Warren McGuire to draft such an ordinance without including details of boundaries of the area to be affected, declared that "it is necessary to plan and develop this area for its future use—this represents common sense on a long range basis."

"I would be hesitant in passing an emergency ordinance," countered Supervisor George Ludy of Inverness, "because it means taking away the constitutional rights of the people. It could well run for 20 years."

Behr sought to reassure Ludy by saying that such an ordinance requires four out of the board's five votes to be effective for one year.

He said he believed a unanimous vote was necessary for a second year "and then it terminates." Rather wistfully, Behr added: "I can never predict the vote of any one of my colleagues. This remains a mystery."

Ludy got involved in another mystery of lighter sort after remarking that it was still difficult to see where the seashore would represent economic advance for West Marin, and surmising that his garage-owning brother-in-law in Inverness seemed presently in the best position to profit.

A listener promptly phoned in to ask why the brother-in-law has three gasoline pumps right against the county road.

"I really can't say," Ludy replied, "but I think possibly it's that he's a good businessman and wants to be sure nobody gets by."

Said Behr: "Bless your brother-in-law and I hope he makes out well."

Benjamin P. Bonelli, attorney representing several Point Reyes Peninsula subdividers, pointed out that businessmen with large investments can't afford to "stop in midstream" on a mere chance of something not certain.

"I can't see how the present subdivisions can be of great concern at this time to Congress or the supervisors," he continued. He said repeated statements have indicated that condemnation action will be taken soon after the seashore bill is enacted and passed, and that this would soon wipe out the subdivision situation.

Most of the land is for single-family residences and would be valued on that basis, said Bonelli. He said that so far, "most actions recently have been in the planning stage — if the government takes the property promptly these things will never come to fruition.

"But if not, the land has to be developed."

Moderator Kitty Oppenheimer drew some historical background from the fourth panelist, McGuire, but as to the possible freeze ordinance he said that "it is up to the board (of supervisors) not only to act but to decide on the areas to which the ordinance will apply."

Behr and Ludy found themselves in agreement against honky-tonks and hot-dog stands on the periphery of the proposed seashore. But Ludy said he was against efforts to stabilize zoning within the park and he didn't think a supervisorial "two-thirds of five" could be summoned to swing it.

Ludy expressed interest in quick completion of a West Marin Master Plan which he said should take care of "our worries and needs."

"I have to agree with Mr. Behr, much to my sorrow, that he has a good point," Ludy quipped.

But about the seashore itself, in an area where he has observed a lot of foggy weather, Ludy could only express himself as "a little shaky" and pessimistic even though he was all for giving it a chance by keeping its perimeter in good order.

Behr said, in response to a question, that estimates indicate that no more than $60,000 a year will come off Marin tax rolls as result of the seashore creation.

With the vacation industry third largest in the nation, said Behr, it may be hoped that through creation of the seashore "marvelous Marin for the first time will get its share."

Bonelli said his advice to the subdividers whom he represents has been that they should cooperate with the park service if the seashore bill is passed and signed.

"We shall go ahead only if we can't agree," he said. "Our position is that if the bill does not go through, we must go ahead and develop."

Asked about what the park boundaries should be, Ludy said he thought ideally the restriction should be to 20,000 acres but the bill takes in the whole peninsula. Behr felt that the full 53,000 acres is necessary for "the seashore could be an anachronism if the rest ceased to be pastoral."

Midnight Shoot Puts Man In Jail

A midnight target practice with a .357-caliber Magnum revolver from the window of a Tamalpais Valley home landed an insurance man in Marin County Jail this morning.

Sheriff's Deputies Joseph G. Kelly and George Reuss booked Gustavus Richard Alexander Brown, 61, of 429 Greenglen Way on suspicion of illegal firing of a weapon and disturbing the peace.

Several neighbors, aroused by gunshots, called the sheriff at 12:20 this morning. Officers found Brown standing by the sink, with the revolver on a table nearby.

Deputies said Brown told them he was target practicing in his own backyard, and he had a right to because it is his property.

His wife Florence told officers her husband came home intoxicated and started an argument. She said he got his gun and started firing away at a four-foot pipe with a yellow ribbon on it, attached to a tree in the back yard. Officers said Brown also had a shotgun, two rifles and a .22 caliber pistol at the home.

Brown was bailed out for $131.25 and is scheduled to appear in Marin Municipal Court next Tuesday afternoon.

OBITUARIES

John C. Traugh Succumbs

John C. Traugh, 64, a former captain in the U.S. Navy Medical Corp and Marin County resident for 12 years, died yesterday in an Oakland Hospital after a long illness.

A Requiem Mass will be said at Our Lady of Carmel Church, Mill Valley, at 10 a.m. Monday. The Rosary will be recited Sunday at 8 p.m. in the memorial chapels of the Russell and Gooch Mortuary, 270 Miller Avenue, Mill Valley.

Traugh, a graduate of Jefferson Medical College in Philadelphia, Pa., served 18 years in the Navy and retired in 1961. He was a member of the Marin Rod and Gun Club.

He lived at 33 Mt. View Avenue, Mill Valley, where he is survived by his wife, Mrs. Sara Z. Traugh. He is also survived by three daughters, Mrs. Carol Melvin and Mrs. Joyce Gaskill, both of Mill Valley, and Mrs. Jacqueline Merrow of Kingston, N.Y., and 11 grandchildren.

Interment will be in the Golden Gate National Cemetery, San Bruno at noon Monday.

DAVID RODGERS

Funeral services were held in Petaluma today for David Orr Rodgers, 70, who operated a dairy ranch in the Point Reyes area for a number of years.

Rodgers, a native of Ireland, was living in a Petaluma rest home before he was taken to a Sonoma Valley hospital where he died Tuesday after a short illness.

Funeral services were conducted at 1 p.m. by the Rising Star Lodge, Loyal Orange Lodge, No. 537, at the Parent Funeral Chapel in Petaluma. Interment was in the Cypress Hill Memorial Park.

He was survived by a sister, Mrs. Jean Ann Dixon of Victoria, B.C., and a brother, Thomas Rodgers of Belfast, Ireland.

DEATHS

TRAUGH—In Mill Valley, Aug. 2, 1962, John C. Traugh, Capt. USNMC, husband of Mrs. Sara Z. Traugh, father of Mrs. Carol Melvin and Mrs. Joyce Gaskill, both of Mill Valley, Mrs. Jacqueline Merrow of Kingston, N.Y., also survived by 11 grandchildren. Aged 64 years. A member of the Marin Rod and Gun Club.

Friends are invited to attend the funeral services Monday, Aug. 6, 1962, at 9:30 a.m. from the memorial chapels of Russell and Gooch, 270 Miller Avenue, Mill Valley thence to Our Lady of Carmel Church where a requiem mass will be offered for the repose of his soul commencing at 10 a.m. Rosary 8 o'clock Sunday evening at the chapel. Interment Golden Gate National Cemetery, San Bruno, 12 noon. (2 3-4)

DELUCCHI—In Fairfax, August 1, 1962, Julius A. Delucchi, dearly beloved husband of Ethel Delucchi, loving father of Melvin J. Delucchi of Tiburon and Mrs. James L. De Martini of San Anselmo, idolized grandfather of Judith, Michael and Virginia De Martini, devoted brother of Fred Delucchi of Los Gatos and the late Henry Giudotti, Emil, Guido and Silvio Delucchi; a native of San Francisco, age 75, a member of the San Francisco Parlor No. 49 Native Sons of the Golden West and the San Francisco Aerie No. 5, Fraternal Order of the Eagles.

Friends are invited to attend the funeral at 9:45 a.m. Saturday from the chapel of Valente, Marini, Perata and Co., 649 Green Street in San Francisco, then to Saint Peter and Paul's Church in San Francisco, where a Requiem Mass will be offered at 10:10 a.m. Entombment at Holy Cross Cemetery in Colma. A Rosary will be recited at 8 p.m. tomorrow in the funeral home. Visiting hours until 9 p.m. (8 2-3)

Los Gallinas Cuts 25 Cents Off Sewer Rate

Las Gallinas Valley Sanitary District directors last night approved sewer service charges reduced 25 cents a month for the 1962-63 fiscal year.

The new figure, to go on the tax rolls, will be $1.25 monthly or $15 a year rather than the previous $1.50 a month.

Three board members will be elected Sept. 11 as result of expiring terms and six candidates have filed including two of the incumbents.

Present members who have filed to succeed themselves are Mrs. Annie M. Reagan, secretary of the board, and Arthur B. Carpenter.

The term of Arthur T. Knutson is expiring but he has not filed again due to "conflict of interest" in that he has just been appointed assistant director of the county's Department of Public Works.

Among the four others who have filed are Jack Baken, one of the original district board members who served six years but was defeated at the last election.

The remaining three are W. Alan Sweeney, Robert N. Sundquist and Marjory T. (Mrs. John N.) Crowell.

Marin Boat List Due Assessor

Figures on the number of "assessable boats" in Marin County should be available for the first time about Sept. 1 at the office of the county auditor, it was learned today.

Auditor Bert W. Broemmel said he intends to compile such information annually, though it stil lwill not be a complete record of all boats in the county.

To be listed, boats must have a value of $200 or more because with an assessed value of only 23 per cent of market value it wouldn't pay to handle the paper work with too small a resultant income, said Broemmel.

Boats 20 feet long, and presumably in the water rather than moved by trailer, will be listed. But Broemmel pointed out that in many cases boats in Marin water will be found of ownership outside this county in which case they will go on some other assessor's list.

Airline Rejects Bid To Fly Soblen To U.S.

LONDON (AP) — Britain instructed El Al Airline today to fly fugitive spy Dr. Robert Soblen to the United States and prison. The Israeli airline said it would not do so, the Home Office announced.

A spokesman for the Home Office—Soblen's official guardian while he is in Britain—said the airline stated it was acting on instructions from the Israeli government.

He enrolled at the University of California for further graduate study in 1927 and in 1929 he joined the College of Marin faculty.

Besides teaching, Lewis for many years was director of dramatics and editor of a community newsletter.

He is married to the former Winifred Bullock, a classmate at the University of British Columbia.

"When we get used to the idea of retirement, my wife and I plan to do some traveling," Lewis said. "For the moment, however, we have no firm plans. This has all happened so fast."

Ward Austin, former president of the college, calls Lewis one of the most important figures in the growth of the college.

Lewis was honored for his long service to the college at Founders Day ceremonies in 1961.

don't even have it yet."

But he said he'd exacted a pledge that nothing more will be demanded during the two months 1401 is expected to work in the present data processing quarters downstairs in the courthouse annex.

After removal to the civic center, though, nobody can be sure just what may crop up with the new conditions. And 1401 will have had two months to dream up possible fresh demands.

"It thinks like a flash in some very complicated ways which is why we're getting it," said Mitchell. "Nobody realized before that it might do a little thinking on its own account."

mer Corte Madera planning commissioner John Adlard and Corte Madera electrician John P. Seymour.

Giovanniello said:

"I did not file. I have given it much thought and I decided finally last night my two children and my wife have not seen enough of me the past several years."

He said he needed to give more time to his full-time job as superintendent of the San Jose School District and to certain business and financial interests.

He said he was named in October, 1959, to fill out an unexpired term and accepted to "bring more unity" into the board.

He said he was satisfied that greater unity had been achieved. He said the board now works more closely with the Town of Corte Madera, it has become unified on short and long range programs and is following a 10-year master plan for improvements.

A contest was assured in the Sept. 11 Sausalito-Marin City Sanitary District when six persons filed petitions of candidacy to fill three vacancies.

Among the six was Dean Jennings of Tiburon, nationally known magazine writer. The other candidates are Cyril G. Hansen, Alexis Tellis, James F. Doyle, Frederick Palmer III and Stanley Cowen.

Present directors Loren Jay, Bernard Gratama and Herbert Madden are not seeking reelection, according to sanitary district secretary Edwin S. Long.

A contest was also assured in the Almonte Sanitary District where completed petitions were handed in for incumbent Hugh Brown, Frank Little and Robert Raudso. Besides Brown seeking to return to the board, Homer E. Winfield resigned last week in a disptue over fees and connection charges.

In all other sanitary districts incumbent directors are assured of being returned to office because of no opposition.

Vice Premier In Algeria —Victorious

ALGIERS (UPI) — Dissident Vice Premier Ahmed Ben Bella, victorious in the Algerian struggle for power, arrived in Algiers today for a triumphal entry into the capital he left six years ago as a French captive.

Ben Bella's plane landed at Algiers' Maison Blanche Airport at 5:57 p.m. after a flight from the western port city of Oran.

Crowds massed at the airport and at key spots in the city to welcome the revolutionary hero who emerged yesterday from a week of negotiations as the single most dominant force in this newly independent nation.

Former provisional government Premier Ferhat Abbas and other Ben Bella aides left Oran this morning by car to be on hand when Ben Bella arrived.

During the night the military commanders who control the Algiers region issued a communique during the night which appeared to be a warning against any single man trying to take over power.

It said they "always rejected any choice of personalities in the present circumstances and have confidence in the leaders who are reunited, or in any one of them."

It emphasized a need for state agencies "to reply to the desire of the people."

Two Buried By Ditch Cave In

LOS BANOS (AP) — One man was killed and another critically injured yesterday when a freshly dug storm ditch caved in.

Dead is Kelt R. Merrell, 56, of Los Banos. He was employed by the A. E. Downer Co. of Stockton.

Injured was Kenneth Downer, a son of the company owner.

The two men, shoring up an eight-foot ditch, were buried under several feet of gravel and asphalt.

It took rescuers 15 minutes to free Downer and 20 minutes to uncover Merrell's crushed body.

Truck Driver Dies In Crash

ASHLAND, Ore. (AP)—A northbound truck loaded with reinforcing steel failed to make a curve on Highway 99 five miles south of Ashland today, veered from the highway, sheered off a tree and killed the driver, Clarence Koppl of Union City, Calif.

Skidmarks showed on the highway for 200 feet going into the curve.

JAMES McCANN

Funeral services were to be held this afternoon for James C. McCann, 66, retired Mill Valley railroad worker, who died unexpectedly Wednesday at his home.

The services were to be held in San Francisco, under direction of the Carew and English Funeral Home. Interment will be in Cypress Lawn Cemetery, Colma.

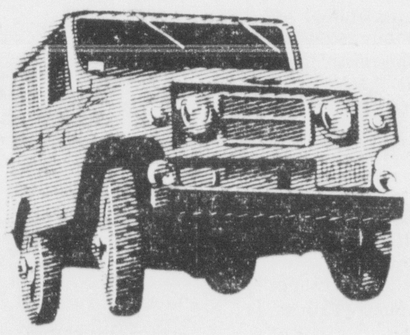

McCann had worked in the news service of the Southern Pacific Railroad dining car department. He had resided at 9 Lillian Lane for one year, coming to Mill Valley from San Francisco where he had lived 40 years.

He is survived by his son, James S. McCann of Oakland and two grandchildren.

Petaluma Balks Over Water Pact

The city of Petaluma will not sign a water agreement with the north Marin County Water District on serving areas south of Petaluma until the city council has studied other possible solutions to the problem.

This decision was reached yesterday afternoon at a joint meeting of the Petaluma city council, the city water commission, city attorney and city manager, according to Robert Meyer, Petaluma city manager.

Directors of the North Marin County Water District at their last meeting approved a tentative agreement to divide the areas between Petaluma and the North Marin District into service areas. This agreement also contained clauses on serving the area south of Petaluma with water from the North Marin District's Russian River aqueduct.

One clause in the agreement was that the North Marin District would only serve these areas with "surplus" water. If the district reached the point where it had no "surplus" water, then those areas would have to annex to the North Marin District to be supplied with a "firm" supply of water. This was the clause that drew the protests from the Petaluma city council.

In yesterday's meeting, the council decided to explore other methods of serving the areas south of Petaluma, such as building its own line into the area. It also decided to make a survey of the potential in the area, Meyer said.

"Some council members felt that the contract was one sided or stiff," Meyer said. The council felt some modifications should go into the contract before the council would approve it. The council will wait on further studies and reports before deciding whether to reject the proposed agreement or submit other recommendations, Meyer said.

"I appreciate their problem," said Jerome B. Gilbert, manager of the North Marin District. However, the line was built primarily for use of this district, he added.

"If we can give those people a temporary supply of water then we are glad to do it," Gilbert said. "But the North Marin District is not trying to force itself on residents south of Petaluma."

Driver Get Jail For Intoxication

John Andrew Myles, 37, of Oakland must spend four days in Marin County Jail for drunken driving.

Judge David R. Baty, sitting in Marin Municipal Court, sentenced Myles yesterday for driving while intoxicated at Third and Irwin Streets in San Rafael last June 7. Myles will be on probation for six months. For the next three months, he may drive only for work.

Raymond Vaino Kemp, 35, of 400 Hilldale Way, Mill Valley, drew $166 fine and one year probation for driving while intoxicated along Highway 101 on July 11. Judge Baty ordered Kemp to stay away from liquor for one year, and drive only for work during the next three months.

Car Left On Bridge; Did Driver Jump?

Evidence of the possible suicide of a man from Albany, Alameda County, was found on the Golden Gate Bridge early today.

Coast Guard search through heavy fog for the body was conducted for more than two hours without success and was abandoned.

The possible victim was William F. Walker, 30.

A car registered in his name and that of his wife Ruth was found headed south and near mid-span at 5:40 a.m. California Highway Patrol investigation listed these factors:

The engine was running, windshield wipers in action, lights on and right door partly open. Fresh cigarette ashes were found on the bridge railing across from the open door.

Fog had caused all bridge surfaces to be wet so it appeared that the ashes could have lain hardly more than a matter of seconds or they would have soaked through. No one was observed walking on the bridge.

Albany police interviewed Mrs. Walker who said she had quarreled with her husband last night, after which he packed and left. He had not appeared at a motel which he sometimes patronized. Mrs. Walker reported that he once attempted suicide some years ago.

A total of 229 suicide jumps from the bridge have been recorded but this, like many other such incidents, remains as only "possible". On many occasions the authorities have found that the presumed victim was still alive.

ROSS SCHOOL TAX JUMPS 22 CENTS

The Ross School District board of trustees last night approved a budget of $270,455 for the 1962-63 fiscal year, which means a tax rate of $2.38, an increase of 22 cents over last year.

Of the $2.38 total rate, $2.07 is for general purpose, 12 cents for reserve, and 19 cents for bond redemption. The total budget is about $13,000 higher than last year.

The school trustees also accepted a bid of $2,585 from Roofing Service and Supply Co. of San Rafaeal to re-roof sections of Ross School. Three other contractors submitted bids, ranging to a high of $2,866.

Three new teachers are:

Mrs. Elizabeth Merriman, who returns to teach fourth grade after a year's leave of absence during which time she received a master's degree from University of Oregon. She is the former Miss Elizabeth Burke.

Miss Grace C. Grove, speech therapist, will spend part time with Ross School District and part time with San Anselmo School District. She is a graduate of University of Oregon.

Mrs. Linda Kazazian will teach eighth grade. She graduated from Northwestern University and did graduate work at Toledo University.

2 Of 4 Stray Camp Inmates Captured; Marinite Sought

Two of the four San Quentin prisoners who escaped from conservation camps in the last three days were captured last night but a San Rafael man remained at large, according to prison officials.

Pat Thomas, 31, and David D. Stockstill, 30, both convicted of first degree robbery, were caught by a Glenn County deputy sheriff in isolated Grindstone Canyon in the Mendocino National Forest at 6 p.m. yesterday.

James Litteral, 35, of San Rafael, who escaped Tuesday from the prison's Deadwood Conservation Camp in Siskiyou County with James R. Marks, 26, was still the object of a statewide hunt by law enforcement agencies.

San Rafael police have searched the residence of Litteral's wife at 124 Park Street but found no trace of the convict serving a sentence of six months to 15 years for burglary.

Marks is also serving a six months to 15 year sentence for forgery and second degree burglary in Tehama County.

Error On College Tractor Plows Up Unprcedented Law

Marin Junior College trustees last night agreed to pay $250 to settle a $2,000 damage suit termed unique in the history of the county and possibly the state.

The suit was filed nearly two years ago against the district and Ward H. Austin, then president, by Ray Hardin of the Hardin Implement Co. of Petaluma.

The suit arose from a clerical error in the district office through which a special tractor costing nearly $5,000 was ordered though the trustees no longer wanted it.

Asst. county counsel Douglas J. Maloney gave this account of the case:

In early 1960 the trustees asked for bids for a tractor with much special equipment to improve and maintain college of Marin grounds.

On May 12, 1960, the trustees decided the district could not afford the tractor that year and rejected Hardin's bid of $4,792.75.

On July 1, 1960, a district office worker by mistake stamped a purchase order for the tractor with a signature stamp bearing Austin's name.

In routine fashion the order was mailed to Hardin.

Hardin, in a claim filed with the trustees Aug. 2, 1960, said the tractor was ordered with power steering, a Wagner bucket loader, a McGee scraper, a fertilizer spreader, a combination pole pruner and saw. Trustees rejected the claim.

Hardin filed suit for damages in Marin Superior Court on Sept. 27, 1960.

For a year his attorney David Rogers of Oakland held arguments with Maloney in numerous court appearances.

In an amended complaint Hardin said he had to sell the tractor to another purchaser at a loss of $2,000. He asked that amount.

Finally the suit was due for trial last July 26.

On the day of the scheduled trial Maloney and Rogers agreed that trustees settle the claim provided they approved the figure.

Maloney said that in all his research of California legal reports for the past 112 years he could find no other case like this "arising from a nominal clerical error."

He said the county counsel's office was prepared to fight the suit and felt it had a good chance of winning but he thought the settlement was fair.

In his letter to trustees recommending acceptance he said trial of the case would lead to further time and money consuming litigation which he indicated would exceed the $250.

Paul Bianchi Slated To Get FAA Honors

Paul Bianchi of Tomales High School is one of 12 young California farmers recommended by the national executive board of the Future Farmers of America for election to the "American Farmer" degree in FFA at the national convention at Kansas City in mid-October.

The recommendation virtually insures election and all are expected to receive American Farmer pins and certificates in person at the convention.

Paul is a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Bianchi of Valley Ford, just over the Marin boundary in Sonoma County.

COLOR SLIDES LIVEN MARIN COLLEGE MEET

Showing of a set of about 60 color slides of College of Marin campus and classroom scenes brightened the Marin Junior College trustees meeting last night.

The slides were shown in the art building by Herbert Blanchcett, coordinator of publications, in connection with his annual report.

He said more slides would be added to complete the "travelers kit" to be used as a presentation by members of the college speakers bureau in appearances at service clubs and other groups.

Trustees clerk Kent O. Seymour suggested it also be shown to faculty and students at Marin high schools. Blanchett said a tape recording might be made to accompany the slides.

Death Row Inmate On Hunger Strike

A condemned inmate on San Quentin's Death Row, who has refused to eat solid food for seven days, was transferred to the state prison at Vacaville yesterday afternoon for a medical examination.

He is Clarence Edward Ashley, 37, convicted of kidnaping and murder of a 6-year-old girl in Merced County. He has been on Death Row since he entered San Quentin on May 4 but no execution date has been set as yet.

Associate Warden Dale B. Frady said Ashley drank coffee and liquids but has refused to eat since July 27. Frady quoted Ashley as saying he would not eat until God or someone else sets him free.

Fete Planned For Base Commander

Col. William S. Harrell, new commander of Hamilton Air Force Base, will be honored at a public no-host luncheon at 11:30 a.m. Thursday at Tomahawk Lodge on Highway 101, Novato.

The military affairs committee of the Novato Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring the event. City officials and other dignitaries have been invited.

Reservatios may be made at the Chamber of Commerce office in Novato, according to Irving Links and Irving (Chip) Chapman, co-chairmen of the committee.

Contracts For Spruce Up Of Marin College Approved

Contracts totaling $13,325 were awarded last night by Marin Junior College Trustees for summer repainting and repaving on the College of Marin campus in Kentfield.

Votes for two contracts were 4-0, trustee George G. Washburn absent.

Ghilotti Brothers, Inc., of San Rafael was awarded a contract for asphalt paving at $4,985. W. G. Thompson of San Francisco was awarded a $8,340 contract for repainting.

Bids for other work including renovating the entrance to Olney Hall and replacing of numerous doors were rejected as too high.

Theodore Stolte of the architectural firm of Falk and Booth said the estimate on this work was $8,277 whereas bids ranged from $16,483 to $19,619.

Stolte said some of this latter work included replacing a ceiling in Harlan Hall, repairing a concrete wall of the engineering building and restoring artificial stone columns of the library.

On motion of trustee Robert E. Oliver, Stolte was instructed to seek informal bids to be opened in September on this work so that painting would not be delayed. Stolte estimated this would cost $2,000 or less.

In other actions the college trustees:

1. Approved an increase in bodily injury and property damage insurance from $500,000 per claim by a single person and one million dollars by a group to one million dollars and two million dollars for accidents involving campus cars at an increased premium of $400 a year. Trustee clerk Kent O. Seymour said this was chiefly protection for accidents involving college buses.

2. Voted to seek the services of a landscape architect in campus expansion.

3. Deferred decision on whether to name a committee to advise the board on selection of a north Marin campus site until college president Stephen E. Epler returns from vacation.

4. Received with praise the 1962-63 Mariners Chart, annual student handbook edited by Virginia Carroll with publications coordinator Herbert Blanchett as advisor.

5. Received report from dean of students Irwin P. Diamond that 1,400 full time students are expected when school opens Sept. 4 as against 1,238 a year ago. About 700 part time students are expected as against about 600 last year. Applications to last Friday totaled 1,018 compared with 689 a year previously.

6. Approved use of school facilities for the coming year by various outside groups and ratified program of adult education and day courses for next fall as presented by dean Ellsworth R. Briggs.

7. Delayed hiring a new groundsman when business manager Norman Bird said he had no recommendation yet.

8. Presented Seymour a framed certificate of appreciation for his services as trustees president the preceding year.

9. Went into executive session at 10:55 p.m. for about six minutes to discuss personnel matters, reconvened in public session and then adjourned at 11:05 until 8 p.m. Aug. 25 in Room 61 of the art building.

Budget For Expansion Of College Approved

After a final public hearing the Marin Junior College District Board last night unanimously approved a fiscal 1963 budget of $2,661,397—$1,078,377.65 more than last year.

Most of the increase will go for pay-as-you-go improvement and expansion of the College of Marin authorized by voters June 5 at an additional tax of 35 cents for 10 years to raise $11,305,000. Plans include a new campus in North Marin.

About one million dollars is expected to be raised in the coming fiscal year from the added tax. It will go into a new special reserve fund of $920,000 to be used only for building construction and maintenance. The old reserve fund of $25,000 raises total reserves to $945,000.

Business manager Norman Bird totaled the funds to be raised by the total tax rate at $1,860,633.59 compared to $909,863 received last year. The old basic tax rate was 42 cents; the new rate will be set by the county board of supervisors.

Income from other sources will be $410,000 as against $362,024.64 the preceding year.

Besides the increased expense for construction Bird pointed to one other bajor increase. Teachers salaries will be $636,821 as against $550,864.14 last year because of hiring of nine new teachers.

Muir Beach Directors To Get Firm's Report

The Muir Beach Community Services District Board will meet at 8 p.m. Wednesday at the home of Allison E. Schofield at which time Charles McCandless Co. in Palo Alto will present a preliminary report on improvements to the water system.

The engineering firm will also present proposed assessments for the average homeowner, according to Leslie Smith, director.

COLLEGE OFFERS SCIENCE DEGREE

The lack of economics as a requirement for graduation from College of Marin was bemoaned by Trustee Robert E. Oliver last night as college trustees approved creation of the degree of associate in science.

Students thus may now seek either the science degree or the traditional degree of associate in arts.

Requirements are set forth giving students less leeway to enroll only for courses that they like, said dean of students Irwin P. Diamond. The science degree will go to those majoring in engineering and other technological fields.

Irwin said requirements were tightened because in the past many students have failed in two years to earn sufficient credits in proper subjects to graduate.

The new degree was part of a report from college president Stephen E. Epler on graduation requirements and major fields.

In Dr. Epler's absence the report was discussed by Diamond and physical education director Harry Pieper.

Before the report was approved, Oliver, a business executive, said:

"I'd like to see economics as a requirement. We have so few students take economics. They get out of high school and almost none of them have taken economics. About two per cent. Economics are absolutely necessary for anyone going into business."

Diamond said many business students take economics and added that it is among alternate requirements for social science majors.

Under the new program a student seeking an associate in arts degree must pass in a business, industrial mathematics or electrical engineering course if he fails to pass an aptitude test. United States history and American institutions are required.

All canddates for a science degree must complete requirements for an arts degree—and in addition are expected to select certain courses having general education values, including social science and the humanities.

Anderson Off Agency

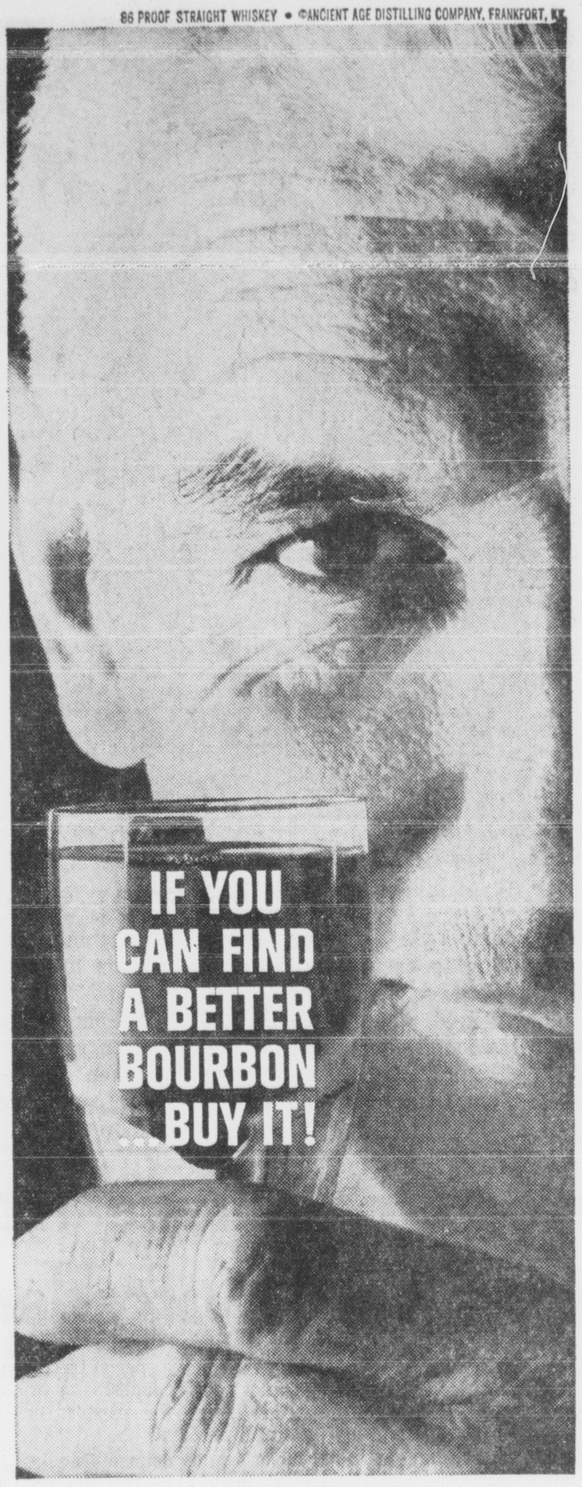

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Lt. Gov. Glenn M. Anderson has stepped down as chairman of the State Lands Commission. He is being succeeded by State Controller Alan Cranston under a rotation policy.

The 11 Western States account for about 19 per cent of the farm marketing cash receipts of the nation.

Injured Pipefitter Holds Court All Day At Gun Point

By DICK STUART

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—An embittered pipefitter, incensed by discontinuance of his disability checks, held eight men at gunpoint for 12½ hours in a state office before detectives disarmed him Thursday night.

Charles Elmer Milligan, 52, of Tempe, was subdued by Sgt. Earl Moore and detective Don Rodriquez, who gained entry to the barricaded office by posing as newsmen.

Moments earlier, Milligan had voluntarily released five of his prisoners.

The drama began about 8 a.m. in a four-story state capitol annex housing offices of the Arizona Industrial Commission.

There for a hearing on his disability claim, Milligan whipped out a .22 caliber pistol and wounded his own attorney in a scuffle before taking command of the room.

He released his lawyer, Stephen S. Gorey, 46, who scooted out of the room on the seat of his pants and was hospitalized with a flesh wound in his left leg. Later, Gorey, from a hospital bed, conferred with Milligan by telephone and tried to talk him out of his gun-waving lecture to commission officials.

The gunpoint hearing was interrupted in its early stages by Milligan's son, Charles, 28, who was promptly thrown out by his angered father.

By telephone, Milligan told Det. Sgt. Seymour Nealist: "I damn near killed them all. He had to get past you to get in. You get him the hell out of this building."

Milligan suffered a back injury 18 months ago while working on the Glen Canyon Dam project on the Colorado River in northern Arizona. He drew disability compensation for a while, Gorey said, but the checks stopped in mid-March.

John B. Ryan, 63, a court reporter employed for the hearing and one of the hostages, said: "He just wanted to tell his story, and he did it, even though he repeated himself several times. When he finished, he finished and that was it."

At that point, Milligan released all hostages except Donald J. Morgan, 47, the commission's chief attorney, and the two pseudo-newsmen.

What he planned to do with those three wasn't explained. Whatever it was, it didn't come to pass.

Sgt. Moore got four glasses of water and the men began to talk.

"Until then," said Moore, "Don and I had been no closer to him than 25 feet."

As Milligan turned his head to pick up a glass of water, Rodriguez leaped at him and grabbed the pistol. Moore joined his fellow officer to overpower the husky pipefitter.

There was one wild shot from Milligan's gun, but Moore said, "I don't think he felt like killing anybody."

Reactions of the prisoners varied.

C. Blaine Dunford, 59, employed in the commission's records department, emerged first. He was crying.

"I'm sorry," he said, "but I just can't help it."

He described his fear as greater than what he experienced when he was employed in Honolulu the day the Japanese attacked Pearl Harbor.

Next was Dr. Leo L. Tuveson, 51, attending the hearing to testify against Milligan's disability claim.

"All in a day's work," said the physician.

Ritz Is On Fritz With State Board

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The state liquor department yesterday ruled that Sylvia E. Gustavus, operator of the Ritz at 1360 Myers Street, Oroville, is not fit to hold a liquor license.

The department said she exercised the license in such a manner as to constitute a law enforcement problem.

Her license was suspended for 30 days, effective Sept. 13, with the proviso that it will be revoked unless transferred to a qualified person within six months after expiration of the suspension.

Stray All Come Home

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Of the 134 inmates who escaped from state prison institutions in 1961, 111 have been recaptured, according to figures compiled by the State Department of Corrections.

Congressional Record Has Too Much Junk

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Public printer James L. Harrison has advised House members that if they want to improve the Congressional Record, they will have to stop stuffing it with junk.

The House has voted to spend $50,000 looking for ways to make the record a better daily newspaper, but they may not like Harrison's advice, which was printed in today's edition.

Harrison said that unless Congress decides to get rid of the Record's "appendix," he can't make much headway toward tidying up the "proceedings" section.

The appendix carries daily letters from home, original poems, newspaper dispatches, recipes, and particularly House and Senate speeches that are never delivered. The proceedings records what is supposed to have been said and done in Congress in the preceding 24 hours.

Harrison said that most of the improvements suggested so far would either hike the costs, estimated to run 2.7 billion dollars this year, or wreck the procedure for publishing the record.

Other developments:

Communications — Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey (D-Minn.) said he favors giving the State Department a larger role in the administration's communications satellite program if it is necessary to get the bill passed. Humphrey said he feels "the present language is adequate," but is willing to strengthen it "if there is any doubt."

Wages—Congressional sources said lawmakers in the House may try to revive president Kennedy's proposal to gear federal pay scales to those of private industry. The House Post Office and Civil Service Committee rejected that approach yesterday in favor of a bill slightly more expensive.

Inmates Manning Many State Forest Camps

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Twenty-four conservation camps and three mobile camps are providing the State Division of Forestry with firefighters this summer, according to the Department of Corrections.

Conservation camp inmates and emergency fire-fighting crews from prisons put in more than 870,000 man-hours battling fires in 1961.

DINING OUT AND INNS

By HARRY CRAFT

Track Teams Made Tracks To Sausalito's Alta Mira

American and Russian track teams fought it out at Palo Alto, but apparently they're agreed on one thing—food at the Alta Mira Hotel. Americans came in first, sponsored by the City of Sausalito. Followed then the Russians who admitted (admitted?) that the beef Stroganoff excels that of their own country.

It's conceivable — chef Max Huegi learned the secret many years ago in Shanghai where he worked with a cook from the tsarist kitchens.

Recent visitors Lena Horne and her husband Lennie Hayden, however, cast their votes in favor of the shrimp salad.

Gibson

We're told that the Alta Mira is the only place in Marin where a Green Dragon cocktail is made the same as it is in Hong Kong — using shaos shing. Said to blend smooo-o-thly with the Hong Kong chicken sate on the menu.

PLAYS MUSIC FOR DANCING. Harry (Daddy-O) Gibson, talented organist, leads the musical group at the Candlestick Room in the Country Club Bowl every night but Sunday.

CHANGES at Bob's of Marin, Corte Madera. Vincent Cozzi of Ross replaces Maury Campbell who's moved to Los Angeles—as manager.

Bob's now keeps its dining room open 5 to 10 p.m. seven days a week—same prices as in the coffee shop, and they're low. Complete dinners with three specials changed daily, with a top of $2.15. Also steaks a la carte.

Vince, a graduate of the restaurant division at San Francisco City College, was formerly assistant manager of Veneto's in San Francisco.

FAMILY COMPETITION up Inverness way. We hear that Vladimir and Alena Nevl (she was formerly Alena Prokupek)) have taken over Drake's Arms and will run it as a separate operation from Inverness Lodge. New menu to be introduced. Painting display this month is that of Inez Storer of Point Reyes.

Inverness Lodge will remain with Milan and Manka Prokupek who have opened the dining room for lunches—especially for the ladies who can get hold of their husbands' cars to make the trip to Tomales Bay. All the European dishes for which Manka is noted, plus salads, sandwiches, fish and cold entrees. Small groups encouraged.

KING COTTON RESTAURANT is celebrating its grand opening this Sunday under Jim Jackson who has already made a few changes from the previous operation.

Noteworthy is the addition of full-time car-hops, in order to increase the drive-in service 11:30 a.m. to 1 a.m.

A la carte menu selections remain virtually unchanged but Jim has added several merchant's lunch and dinner specials, rotated daily. Prices are quite reasonable.

A FAVORITE of mine in pianists has moved to the Colonel's Ranch Wagon for Sunday through Thursday night appearances—Mary Lee Chapman.

Her talent comes from many years musicianship. She's been at the Curtain Call and Goman's Gay Nineties in the city; a few years back was at Rubini's. Once a member of the San Francisco Opera cast, she can also do things with the classics—straight or styled to suit the mood of the listener. Never fails to brighten the evening.

ONCE MORE available at Franchini's Chateau is the English sole stuffed with crab legs —also the crab au gratin. They're using the Alaskan king crab. These dishes have always been favorites here.

Youngsters will be entranced with a new livestock addition at the Chateau — Filene, a three-months old fawn, to keep company with Bambi and Tina.

FOR OUTRIGHT VARIETY, menu of the Spinnaker is up to most. Quite a few selections in the seafood line, though this is not exclusively a seafood restaurant as many seem to think. New addition in this department, by the way, is broiled Australian lobster tails.

The steak list is well represented, too, and has Filet Mignon as an addition. New in the poultry line are breast of Cornish game hen a la Kiev served with Canadian wild rice — and boneless royal squab—also with wild rice and a Bourguignonne sauce.

Very popular with the out-of-town show crowd as well as an increasing number of Marinites.

WINES

Vintners Put Wines Up For Test

American vintners will put their products to the taste test again this month in California —one judging will be at the State Fair in Sacramento and the other at the Los Angeles County Fair in Pomona. But don't count on attending them. The public isn't invited. The wine judges work in seclusion, wearing white smocks and looking like Dr. Kildare.

At Sacramento, the wines are judged against a predetermined standard of excellence. Like running a race against time. To win a gold medal, a red wine for example, must have a certain brilliance and richness of color. It must have a superior aroma and bouquet. And it must be A-plus in the taste department. As one expert puts it — "good on the eyes, good on the nose and good on the tongue.

The judges don't swallow the samples the way you do at a social wine tasting. All they do is dampen the taste buds. The wine is discarded in a gadget like the one in your dentist's office.

This year, judging results will be announced at the end of the second week in August. Prize winners will be exhibited during the fair Aug. 29-Sept. 9. And on Wine Growers Day, Dec. 4, at an individual tasting, the winemen themselves can sample and compare.

For the public, both fairs print a free list of award-winning wines. If you would like one, write Wine Corner, in care of this paper. The booklet will be available about mid-September.

Wise Words. Dr. Maynard Amerine, University of California professor and connoisseur, put it this way:

"The aesthetic differentiation of Chesapeake oysters and Olympia oysters occurs only after we can really differentiate them. This cannot occur until we are thoroughly familiar with both. The same is true with wines."

Accent On Oklahoma Map

STILLWATER, Okla. (AP) — An Oklahoma State University professor is making a map of Oklahoma with a tape recorder and conversation.

Dr. William R. Van Riper, associate professor of English, tramps through fields, visits farm houses and villages and talks with people long resident in the area. He is attempting to determine how Oklahoma speech differs from speech patterns in the rest of the United States. It is part of a nationwide research project.

DES MOINES, Iowa (AP) — Burglars climbed an outside fire escape to the roof of a two-story downtown Des Moines building the other night, then went down a stairway to the first floor of an optical company.

From there they carried a 100-pound safe back up to the roof and down the fire escape to a waiting car.

Company officials told police the safe was empty.

Many Pills Come From New Jersey

NEWARK, N.J. (AP)— Fifteen per cent of the nation's medicine is made in New Jersey.

The state's 19 pharmaceutical firms and 123 drug-making houses employe 18,000 workers and spend 50 million dollars annually on research.

'General' Still Looking Good

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — "The General," the wood-burning locomotive of an historic Civil War chase, was one of the top attractions of the 1962 Cotton Carnival.

The ancient engine was wheezing up steam at the station for a run before Carnival crowds when an elderly man walked up and asked:

"Pardon me, but is this the train to Huntsville, Ala.?"

What Would The Late George Apley Think?

BOSTON (AP) — Not all parties in Boston's once-staid Back Bay are dull, formal affairs.

Police intervened in one in which a 42-year-od guest said he was socked on the head with a bar stool. Another guest, 47, was found wounded with a two-and-a-half foot Japanese war sword.

Big Bug Collection At Kansas University

MANHATTAN, Kan. (AP) — Kansas State University department of entomology has a collection of more than 10,000 identified insects.

University officials say it is one of the most complete collections of storage grain insects in North America. Some of the specimens were collected as far back as 1896.

Fort Ross, Russian Outpost, Established 150 Years Ago

The 150th anniversary of Russian Christianity in America will be observed Aug. 18 some 65 miles north of San Francisco, when famed Fort Ross is dedicated as a National Historical Landmark.

Russian Orthodox clergy headed by Archbishop John of San Francisco's Holy Trinity Cathedral will celebrate a choral mass in the tiny redwood chapel where—in 1812—Muscovite fur-hunters paid reverent homage before their ikons and altars.

A 40-voice choir from several of San Francisco's Russian Orthodox churches, directed by Father Roman Sturmer, dean of the cathedral, will chant traditional hymns. And a large delegation from the city's White Russian colony, headed by Gregory Bologoff, president of the Russian Center, will worship at the carefully restored redwood shrine.

Dedication of Fort Ross, a State Monument since 1903, as a National Historical Landmark, will be sponsored by the California Historical Society and its president, Dr. Albert Shumate. More than 200 CHS members will make the trip in chartered buses. Dr. Frederick Cordes, for the Society, will review the historic significance of the czarist outpost, which was abandoned in 1841 when the fur-trade and crops failed.

Assisting at the ceremony will be President Jack Craemer of the Redwood Empire Association, which obtained a State Senate resolution commemorating the anniversary through Sen. Joseph A. Rattigan of Sonoma County.

A plaque will be unveiled by L. G. Merriam of the U.S. National Park Service, and will be accepted by Charles DeTurk, director of California's Department of Parks and Recreation, which continues to administer the site.

More than 108,000 visitors were counted at Ft. Ross last year. It is reached quickest by driving north across the Golden Gate Bridge on U.S. 101 to the Russian River turnoff near Cotati, then through Sebastopol, down the Russian River to Jenner, then north 12 miles on State Route 1 (The Shoreline Highway).

According to history, the Russians dedicated their "Village of Ross" (Russia) on St. Alexanders' Day, 1812, which is computed by some as Aug. 13 and by others as Sept. 12. The exact date is hazy, due to a change in calendars since that time.

Juvenile Hall Tour Scheduled Wednesday

A public tour and discussions on rehabilitation of juveniles will highlight orientation day at Marin County juvenile hall next Wednesday starting at 2 p.m. under sponsorship of the Juvenile Hall Auxiliary headed by Mrs. Roy Michael.

Marin Superior Court Judge N. Charles Brusatori will speak on the role of juvenile court. Dave Fogel, hall superintendent, will join Brusatori in discussing efforts to rehabilitate.

That Man Was Not Nude And He Was Actually A She

A "nude man" reported to be taking a sunbath along the railroad tracks in Rafael Meadows yesterday afternoon turned out to be a woman in a bikini type suit, sheriff's deputies reported.

A resident of Rafael Meadows called the sheriff at 3:40 p.m. to report a man sitting on the tracks without any clothes on.

Sheriff's Deputies Carl Mead and Dennis Shine found Florence Bercut, 37, of San Francisco, who said her doctor had prescribed sunshine. She therefore left foggy San Francisco and was soaking in the sun in a secluded spot behind the Merrydale Apartments.

Officers said she was warned and allowed to go home.

Supervisors Make Changes In Public Works Department

Marin County supervisors took three steps yesterday afternoon to regularize controls in the county Department of Public Works following resignation and departure last week of former director Marvin W. Brigham.

Steps taken at a special session were:

1. Donald R. Frost, already appointed acting director, received concurrent appointment as acting road commissioner—a technical action held up until yesterday by red tape.

2. Title of Arthur T. Knutson was changed from "deputy," as named in the original appointment paralleling that of Frost, to "assistant."

3. By ordinance change the supervisors made it possible to give Knutson an almost immediate pay boost whereas by former rules it would have been necessary that he wait six months.

Though both men received their appointments as "acting" the intent of the supervisors seemed clear to keep them on after six months technical probation.

It is customary for the director to serve concurrently as road commissioner but there must be notice and public hearing before appointment of a new commissioner.

Without a commissioner the county can't draw gas tax refunds from the state. Therefore as a favor, Brigham had consented to serve until yesterday, although he flew off to a new job in the Marshall Islands a week ago yesterday. This meant he couldn't draw his last pay check before departure.

Yesterday's supervisorial session was actually a public hearing but nobody came to protest so it was only a formality.

But Frost became road commissioner by 4-1 vote whereas his directorship came by 3-2 vote. Chairman Walter R. Castro and Supervisor Peter Behr noted the similarity of qualifications of Frost and Knutson for top job, plus the point that Knutson is senior.

Behr decided yesterday that he'd switch to the majority. Still feeling that the qualifications were equal, he said evidence of confidence should be given a department head and expressed himself as favorably impressed by Frost's performance so far.

Castro asked that the minutes repeat his previous position in voting "no." This caused Supervisor George Ludy to ask that the minutes again express his point that actually the deputy director position had never been filled, so neither man had a clear claim to such promotions as have recently come in the planning and administrator's departments.

Then Knutson's title was made "assistant" in order to indicate clearly that he was next in line.

Frost got a salary boost from $912 to $1,150 monthly but though Knutson changed in range, technicalities would have held him at his present $955 because he had just reached that point through recent step increase. Now he will go to $1,000 on Sept. 1 by the supervisors' change in ordinance.

Senior Citizen Meeting Spot Seen In Novato

A proposed plan for an old people's meeting place in a vacant used car lot on Grant Avenue between First and Second streets last night was presented to the Novato City Parks and Recreation Advisory Commission.

Robert Rankin of 65 Ormond Court had a small model of the lot showing benches, trees in tubs, horse-shoe pits and other facilities for use of the senior citizens in the downtown area.

Mrs. Robert Lagel, commission member, was named to a committee to contact the senior citizens on the proposal and report back to the commission.

Harley McAskill, representing the Novato Rotary Club, met with the commission to offer the assistance of the Rotary Club in planning a complete recreation program for all ages.

Mrs. John Machado told the commission that veterans memorial funds are available in the county for use in building a swimming pool. However, the Parks and Recreation Commission would have to meet with the county supervisors to get any of these funds for a pool in the Novato area. Any pool that would be built by these funds would be a veterans memorial pool, she said.

The commission set Sept. 16 as a tentative date for an open house to welcome Edmund O. Mahany, newly hired permanent parks and recreation director. The open house would be held in the community building.

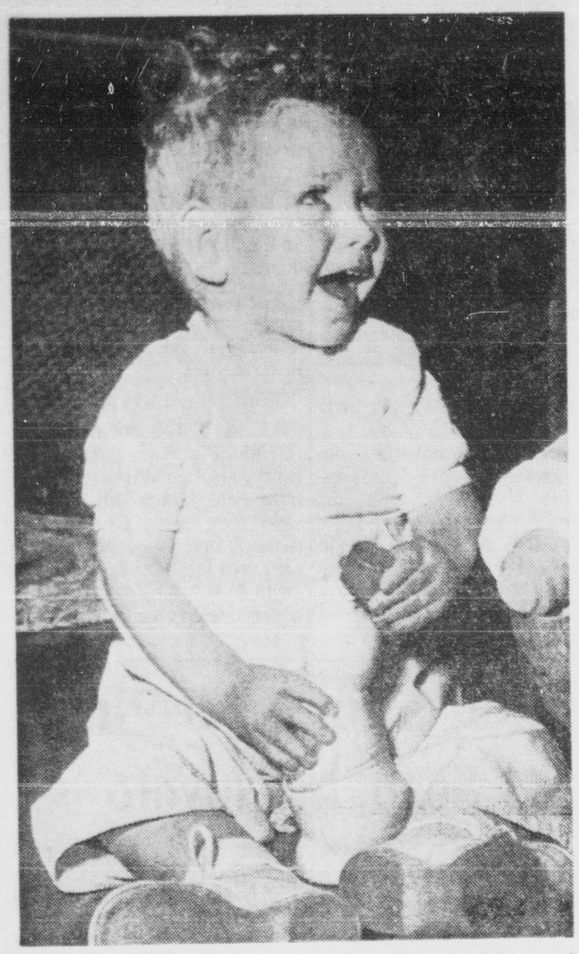

Missile Worker Killed On Job

SACRAMENTO (AP) — George V. Meschersky, 46, a workman, was struck and killed by a flying piece of metal yesterday at the Aerojet — General Corp. rocket plant near Sacramento.

A plant spokesman said Meschersky, a Sacramento resident, was helping prepare a rocket test stand for firing in a testing facility when a valve mechanism burst. Rocket fuel was not involved, the spokesman said and no tests were being conducted.

Beer-loving West Germans consumed 462,000 gallons of draught beer in 1960, a postwar record.

Marin MAGAZINE
Bright reading for the whole week
Featured this Saturday:
There is no more enthusiastic hobbyist than the cat fancier. And one of the hottest argument heard among these people is an old one—the short-hair breeds vs. the longhair breeds. In tomorrow's issue of your Independent-Journal Marin Magazine, writer M. Elizabeth Johnston discusses this and many other questions of interest to people who love cats. And they are legion in Marin.
Did you know that Marinites can earn Master's Degrees through advanced study without leaving the confines of their own county? If you didn't, Marin Magazine editor Don Keown tells you how tomorrow. It's a story about two different kinds of graduate study programs being offered in San Rafael by Dominican College, and about the people who have taken advantage of this opportunity.
The Marin Magazine continues its "See Marvelous Marin" series on places of scenic, recreational, educational and historical interest when it takes you on a tour of the Tiburon Peninsula tomorrow. Whether or not you have already made the trip, you will enjoy reading about an area which is rightfully regarded as one of the most beautiful localities in all of northern California.

'MIRACLE BABY'—Todd Groenwold, 18-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Groenwold of Rushmore, Minn., has had seven operations in his young life, five of them major. Doctors gave him 100-to-one odds of surviving, but he's now living like a normal happy boy. (AP Wirephoto)

Took 7 Operations, But He'll Be Normal

RUSHMORE, Minn. (AP)—They call him the "miracle baby" and after seven operations in his 18 months it's no wonder.

Todd Groenewold was born March 3, 1961 without a connection between his esophagus and his stomach. The channel through which food must flow came to a dead end.

That meant trouble at once for the infant son of a farm couple, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Groenewold. Dr. R. R. Sawtell of Worthington, Minn., gave the baby oxygen and put him in an incubator.

Todd couldn't keep any food or water down and examination showed the serious trouble. He was taken to University Hospitals in Minneapolis for surgery. In a five-hour operation, surgeons connected the esophagus to the stomach.

A week later this broke down and frail Todd was rushed back for another five hours on the operating table. He was fed milk through a tube inserted directly into his stomach.

In another week a lung collapsed and Todd got bacterial pneumonia.

On April 17 last year a three-hour operation was required to correct the position of the feeding tube. By mid-May Todd had gained weight—up to nine pounds, two ounces, and went home to his parents' farm four miles from this southwestern Minnesota community.

Doctors said he had survived 100-to-1 odds to live.

In April of this year, it was back to the hospital for three operations.

Now, Todd is back home and thriving much like a normal child. But one more operation—hopefully the last—remains, doctors say. His esophagus runs outside of Todd's breastbone. When he's about six, doctors will operate to place the tube inside the chest.

Then, say the surgeons, the blond youngster will be able to romp happily with the four other Groenewold children.

His mother, who is expecting another child, says it will take many years to pay off the medical expenses for Todd's operations.

But, she adds, "We don't worry about that. We're just so glad to have him."

MAN IN SHORTS WANDERING IN WILDERNESS

PRINCE ALBERT, Sask. (AP)—It was really quite simple, an American tourist explained to Royal Canadian Mounted Police who found him wandering along a highway near here clad in his undershorts.

Police declined to identify the tourist, but said he gave them this account yesterday.

His wife was driving the family car, while he relaxed in a trailer. When she stopped in the Candy Bay District, 50 miles northwest of here, to let some bears cross the road, the husband stepped out to see what the trouble was. His wife drove on, not knowing he was left behind.

The police drove 70 miles before overhauling the wife and reuniting the couple.

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Eight of 14 planned senior centers are now open in Los Angeles. The latest to be dedicated is located at the Las Palmas Playground.

Mainz, Germany, was so prosperous and influential in the Middle Ages that it is still known as "Golden Mainz."

Nixon Tells Of Seventh Crisis

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Richard M. Nixon says he has added a seventh crisis to his list—taking the California bar examination.

In a light-hearted talk before the Legal Aid and Defender Assn. last night, the former vice president whose "Six Crises" is high on the best seller list, said that the bar examination of three seven-hour days was an ordeal worse than being stoned and taunted in South America.

It was the first appearance for Nixon since he won California's GOP gubernatorial nomination last June.

Nixon said he began practice during the depression in 1937 and had some hard times.

He recalled that one of his professors advised his students to "marry for money and practice law for love." He said that he had married for love, but that nevertheless his wife, a teacher, was earning three times as much as he was in the early days of his legal career.

Turning to more serious topics, Nixon said that he opposed the administration's medicare program because he felt it did not solve the problem.

But Nixon said there would continue to be pressures for a federal program unless the medical profession itself comes up with a satisfactory voluntary medical aid program.

Blasted Missile Silo At Chico To Be Rebuilt

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Air Force has ordered the rebuilding of a Titan missile silo destroyed by an explosion at a site near Chico, Rep. Harold T. Johnson, (D-Calif.), reported yesterday.

Johnson said the Air Force had directed the Martin-Marietta Co., prime contractor for two other silos under construction at the site, to add extra crews in order to speed rebuilding of the silo.

Construction will start within a week, the Air Force told Johnson. No completion date was reported.

The Air Force said the cost—probably between 3 and 4 million dollars—could be met from current funds and that no appropriation would be needed.

Fill No More In Once Busy Fillmore District

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — The State Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control has reduced the number of liquor licenses in the Fillmore District of San Francisco from 120 to 66 since it took over liquor control in 1955.

The Department rates the Fillmore District a "problem area."

Repercussions Over Drug

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Here are the latest developments on the drug thalidomide, believed to cause deformities in infants when taken by mothers in early pregnancy:

WASHINGTON—Sen. Jacob K. Javits (R-N.Y.) said the laws and regulations concerning the experimental use of new drugs are so loose that people become involuntary human guinea pigs.

NEW YORK—The City Health Department said it had traced a woman who had 374 pills containing thalidomide. Department investigators have recovered 539 doses of the compound.

BOSTON—State public health officials said they would ask all Massachusetts hospitals and doctors to make voluntary reports of babies born with congenital defects.

NEW YORK—The drug, medicine and chemical company of Richardson-Merrell Inc. reported record high sales and earnings for the year ended June 30. The company's William S. Merrell Co. division is the United States licensee for thalidomide, but none of the drug was sold by the division.

WASHINGTON — Secretary of Welfare Anthony Celebrezze promised new regulations soon to govern distribution of drugs to physicians for investigational purposes.

LOS ANGELES — Television actress Sherri Finkbine, of Phoenix, Ariz., denied a legal abortion in an appeal to an Arizona court, may leave for Stockholm, Sweden, today. Sweden grants legal abortions for social, family or health reasons.

KANSAS CITY—A U.S. Food and Drug Administration spokesman said hundreds of persons in Kansas City—including a few pregnant women—were given thalidomide. He added that reports so far show all the expectant mothers but one gave birth to normal babies. The remaining woman is eight months pregnant.

WINDSOR, Ont.—A couple whose twins were born with deformities will seek government assistance. The mother took pills containing thalidomide. And the twins, a boy and a girl, were born last January with deformed forearms and thumbs.

HEIDELBERG, Germany — U.S. Army doctors, reporting at least three deformed infants born, warned soldiers' wives against use of thalidomide. The Army said the drug has not been used in its medical facilities or pharmacies but that nonmilitary doctors had prescribed the drug to some Army wives.

Deaf, Blind Mother Dies

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — Georgia Hathaway, a deaf and blind woman whose battle to rear her own baby aroused nationwide attention in 1955, is dead of a heart attack.

The 43-year-old woman died last night at Akron General Hospital, where she was taken July 22.

Mrs. Hathaway had known for some time that her rheumatic heart condition was serious, but she had told friends she hoped she might live until her son, Clarence, grew up.

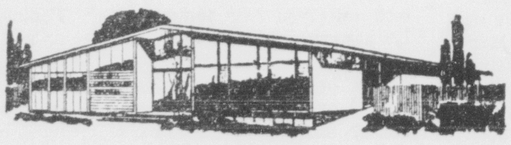

Clarence is only 7, but in many ways he already is grown up. For the last few years he has been the eyes and ears of his parents. He helped with household chores, answered the telephone and the doorbell at their home in nearby Stow and helped with the shopping.

His father, Harold, 60, also is deaf and blind.

The Hathaways were married in Kansas after a romance conducted by letters written in Braille. When Clarence, who has normal hearing and vision, was born Feb. 17, 1955, his mother insisted she could take care of him. Welfare authorities were not so sure, and the case went to Juvenile Court Judge Russell W. Thomas, who ruled that the couple could keep their child.

We licked crabgrass the easy way in grass and dichondra

CLOUT® does in minutes what hours of hard work never did

Digging out crabgrass by hand is back breaking. But even that isn't the worst of it. The sad truth is that it doesn't work.

Digging simply brings thousands of buried crabgrass seeds to the surface. You get six new plants for every one you pull up. Thus all the hard labor goes for nothing.

But research has found an easier way and an effective way of getting rid of summer crabgrass in grass or dichondra lawns. It is an exclusive development of Scotts, the lawn people, and has been used by several million lawn owners. It is called CLOUT.

Using CLOUT is about as simple as anything can be. You simply pour a bag of it into a Scotts Spreader, set the dial — and go. Takes only a half hour for a 5000 sq ft lawn. Costs less than ⅓¢ per sq ft.

At first the crabgrass begins to lose color, turn brown and shrivel. The second application, a week later, completes the job. Satisfaction guaranteed or your money refunded.

But don't delay. Don't give crabgrass the chance to spread and smother out dichondra and the good grass. Get rid of it with CLOUT right now.

There is a Scotts dealer near you. He can supply CLOUT and answer your lawn questions.

Giants Get 'Lift,' Take On Pirates Tonight

Given the lift they needed by a southpaw pitcher who hadn't won a game in two months, the San Francisco Giants head tonight into their big three-game series against the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Although he needed relief with two outs in the ninth inning, Billy Pierce captured his first decision since June 1 yesterday when he beat the Chicago Cubs 4-3, breaking a four-game losing string for the second place National League club.

"Pitching a game like that gives everybody a lift," declared Manager Alvin Dark who hopes the Giants can continue their impetus against the Pirates' right-hander Alvin McBean (10-7) tonight.

San Francisco sends ace Juan Marichal (13-7) against the Pirates tonight with Jack Sanford going Saturday.

With the right-handed McBean pitching, Dark makes some lineup switches with Willie McCovey to play left field if his ailing leg is okay, Chuck Hiller back at second base and Tom Haller catching. All three are left-handed swingers.

Third base remains questionable with both Jimmy Davenport and his No. 1 replacement, Harvey Kuenn on the injured list. Despite his sprained right ankle, Davenport saw limited service yesterday but Kuenn, who sprained his right wrist on Wednesday, didn't play.

Pierce survived a line drive shot off his knee in the first inning to work until the ninth. Then, with two out, Billy Williams and Andre Rodgers homered and Don Larsen came in to strike out pitch hitter Bob Will ending the game.

Pierce and Larsen both came to the Giants last winter from the Chicago White Sox in an interleague trade. Billy's victory gave him a 9-3 record, but even more important was the first triumph since he was spiked in the heel on June 14 at Cincinnati.

The line drive from leadoff hitter Don Landrum nearly put Pierce on the shelf again, but he shook off the injury.

"It hurt but after sitting around six weeks not being able to pitch, you're not going to get out of there unless you're broken," the 35-year-old left-hander declared wryly.

Chicago scored in the first when Ron Santo singled Landrum home. The Giants tied it in the second when Davenport singled home Orlando Cepeda and went ahead with two runs in the third off starter and loser Dick Ellsworth.

Jose Pagan singled and scored on Felipe Alou's double. Cepeda's single tallied Alou. In the eighth, Matlie Alou scored what proved to be the winning run. He walked off reliever Don Elston, advanced on a wild pitch and an infield out and scored on Ernie Bowman's squeeze bunt.

Howard's Bat Continues To Carry Dodgers

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Frank Howard!

Again!

That's been almost the entire story for the Los Angeles Dodgers recently and, although the script underwent minor changes last night, the result was the same as Howard struck the key blow for a 5-3 victory over Pittsburg.

Howard slammed three homers and drove in 12 runs while the Dodgers swept a three-game series from second-place San Francisco last weekend.

Against the Pirates last night, Howard used a two-run single to win it for the Dodgers. The seventh inning hit off relief ace Elroy Face snapped a 3-3 tie.

The triumph maintained the Dodgers' four-game lead over the second-place Giants, who edged the Chicago Cubs 4-3 to end a four-game losing streak.

Cincinnati got the cooling off treatment from St. Louis as Ernie Broglio pitched a four-hitter to beat the defending champion Reds 5-1. Dick Farrell's five-hit shutout gave Houston a 3-0 triumph over Milwaukee and Philadelphia outslugged the New York Mets 9-4.

ANGELS WIN

In the American League, the second-place Los Angeles Angels edged Cleveland 5-4, third-place Minnesota whipped Baltimore 6-3, Boston defeated the Chicago White Sox 7-4 and Kansas City nipped Detroit 5-4. The New York Yankees and Washington were not scheduled.

Two home runs by Pirate catcher Smoky Burgess built a 3-0 lead for Vern Law, but the Dodgers closed within a run on Tommy Davis' two-run homer in the sixth. In the seventh, Face replaced Joe Gibbon (2-2) on the mound and made a wild throw on Jim Gilliam's bunt, allowing one run to score. He then walked Willie Davis, got Tommy Davis on a double play and walked Ron Fairly before Howard connected. Johnny Podres (8-7) won it with Larry Sherry's relief help.

SPOILS SHUTOUT

Broglio (8-4) had the Reds blanked on three singles by Don Blasingame until the ninth when Jerry Lynch doubled and came home on a wild pitch. The Cards made the most of an ineffective evening by Bob Purkey (16-4).

The Colts jumped on Braves' starter Lew Burdette (8-7) for their three runs in the first inning. That finished Burdette. Tony Cloninger, Don Nottebart and Carl Willey held Houston to three hits the rest of the way.

Jim Gentile Tells Marin Uncle Yanks A Cinch, Mays Is Greatest

CONNOLLY

Soft spoken Leo Galli, God's gift to Marin County nurserymen and an uncle to Jim Gentile, Baltimore Oriole homerun hitting first baseman, is back from the south. Leo took off a short time ago with neighbor Pete Maggi, also a flower merchant, to see nephew Jim in action against L.A. Angels.

Gentile, who missed being the Dodger regular first baseman by two seasons because Gil Hodges didn't blow up quick enough, tells Uncle Leo the Yankees are a cinch for the American League pennant.

"They have too much for the other clubs," Gentile explains. "If Mickey Mantle was in shape and playing regularly, I think they'd be far ahead of where they are in the league standings."

Uncle Leo says the Baltimore club is very disappointing. They figured, at the start of the season the Orioles had a chance. But shifting managers hurt them and the club became an individualistic group. They shift for themselves and there isn't any teamwork or togetherness on the club.

IN A FANNING bee, Gentile told Uncle Leo what the American Leaguers think of Willie Mays of the Giants.

Everyone," says Gentile, "in our league agrees Willie Mays is the greatest ball player in baseball today. The closest guy to him, if he was in shape and played regularly, would be Mickey Mantle."

When Paul Richards moved to Houston he put a dent in the Oriole flag hopes. The team and the players just didn't get over it and as a result the team never seems to put forth its best efforts.

GENTILE LIKES the new manager, Billy Hitchcock, but admits there is quite a difference in discipline compared to when Richards was in charge.

"Hitchcock is a grand guy and knows his stuff, but he's too soft with some of our gang," Gentile whispered to Uncle Leo. "If he'd get tough and rough, I think the club would play harder and win oftener."

Maggi, a semi-pro sponsor and an avid ball fan, brought back warm words of praise for Bill Rigney, manager of the L.A. Angels.

"The club is going good and it's the most hustling group I ever watched," says Maggi.

GENTILE, a former Sacred Heart Collegian and now one of the leading homerun hitters in the American League, is the third "great player" from Sacred Heart. The other two were Harry Heilman, ex-Detroit star, and Joe Cronin, former manager of Washington and Boston. Both Heilmann and Cronin are in the Hall of Fame and if Gentile keeps improving he has a good chance someday to make it.

San Rafael Wins Finals Berth In Hub Ball Tourney

San Rafael's Senior League All-Stars defeated San Anselmo 13-6 last night to win a place in the San Anselmo All-Star Tournament championship game Sunday against Les Vogel of San Francisco. The title match will begin at 1 p.m.

The big bats in the San Rafael win were first baseman Gary Carlson who knocked a grand slam homer and Fred Center with a three-run homer.

San Anselmo hitters were Gary Goodall with a double and a three-run homer in four at-bats and Lon Gallagher with two triples in four trips.

Ron O'Connell pitched the full seven innings for San Rafael.

Pop Warner Grid Meetings Slated

With only one week until the first practice, the Marin County Pop Warner Football League will start organizational meetings tomorrow.

The first teams to meet will be the Redwood Junior Giants who will meet with Coach John Pagliaro at the Redwood High Gym, 10 a.m. tomorrow, and the San Anselmo Pirates who will meet with Coach Bob Toquinto at the Drake High football field at 11 a.m. Saturday. All boys who have signed up are requested to be present at these meetings, as well as any other boys who are interested in signing up.

Ex-Marinite In 'Star' Game; Sixto Wins San Diego Bout

College All-Star football classic in Chicago tonight, to be televised nationally at 7 o'clock on KGO-TV (Channel 7), will be of special interest to Marin County fans.

A prominent member of the College All Star squad will be Reg Carolan, a 1958 graduate of Drake High School where he was football, track and basketball star. Carolan recently graduated from University of Idaho where he was a star end and high draft choice of the San Diego Chargers and Los Angeles Rams. He chose the San Diego contract and will report to the Chargers immediately after tonight's game.

Since the All-Stars plan to pass a lot against the vaunted Green Bay Packers tonight, Carolan may see considerable action. He will wear No. 80 on his jersey.

SIXTO TRIUMPHS

SAN DIEGO (AP) — "Kid" Sixto Rodriquez, 175, of San Anselmo, won a unanimous decision last night over Junius Washington, 175, of San Diego, in a 10-round light heavyweight bout here.

The presence of former champions, Rocky Marciano and Willie Pep, and present California light heavyweight king, Archie Moore, helped attract 2741 fans to the San Diego Coliseum.

WITT ELIMINATED

Reed Witt of Larkspur was elminated from the National Junior Boys Tennis Championships at Kalamazoo, Mich., yesterday. Fifth seeded Jim Beste of Baton Rouge, La., beat Witt by 6-0, 6-2.

HICKEY THE CRITIC

MORAGA (AP) — Critic and Coach of the San Francisco 49ers, Red Hickey, went to the movies recently and panned parts of the pictures he saw.

The films were taken of the team's Wednesday scrimmage and Hickey noticed flaws in pass protection blocking and timing for the running plays.

Yesterday, the squad worked on passing and running drills.

WALL'S INSURANCE

Art Wall Jr. shot a six-under-par 65 yesterday to take the first round lead in the 72-hole, $35,000 Insurance City Golf Open at Hartford, Conn. One stroke back were Paul Harney and Frank Boynton.

KING COMPARES

MIAMI (AP) — Clyde King, Rochester manager who is helping with Baltimore's spring training for the second straight year, compares Oriole rookie slugger John (Boog) Powell with Johnny Mize and rookie southpaw pitcher Art Quirk with Whitey Ford.

"Powell is big and a slugger," says King. "He reminds me of Mize. Quirk pitches like Ford when he first came up with the Yankees. Quirk is a cinch to make the Orioles this year."

Hurls One-Hitter In Tourney Game

John Milliken of Novato pitched a one-hit, 4-0 victory over Hamilton-Loma Verde Wednesday night in a feature of the Invitational Little League Baseball Tournament at Hamilton Air Force Base. Bill Tweedie got the losers' only hit with two outs in the last inning.

Tomorrow, three games are on tap starting at 10 a.m. and 1 and 3:30 p.m.

GOLFER ONLY TWO YEARS, HE GETS AN ACE

Bill Donaldson of Terra Linda is only 13 years of age and has been playing golf only two years, but already he can claim an accomplishment most veteran duffers only dream of.

Bill scored a hole-in-one this week at the Meadow Club. Using a four-iron, he aced the 151-yard eighth hole with companions Rick Timmer and Buzz Beattie witnessing.

A spokesman for the Meadow Club pro shop said Donaldson is believed to be the youngest player ever to score an ace at the Fairfax links.

Kubek Discharged, Rejoins Yankees

MILWAUKEE (AP) — The New York Yankees' Tony Kubek has been discharged from the Army and he says he is anxious to exchange his nine-pound infantryman's rifle for a two-pound baseball bat.

Kubek, who served 10 months with Wisconsin's 32nd Division at Ft. Lewis, Wash., said he hopes to join the Yanks in Chicago in time for Saturday's game with the White Sox.

'Scared' All-Stars Battle Green Bay On TV Tonight

CHICAGO (UPI) — The 1962 College All Stars will be "running scared" against the Green Bay Packers, champions of the National Football League, tonight and Coach Otto Graham believes that might help the collegians win.

The Packers were three-touchdown favorites for the 29th game of the annual series, in which the pros, victors 18 times, boast a three game winning streak. The collegians have won eight games with two ties.

The game, which will be nationally broadcast and televised, was scheduled to start at 7 p.m. PDT. Though a cloudy day was predicted, the temperature was not expected to go past the mid-80s and there was only a chance of showers.

Graham, who has coached the last four All-Star teams, believed that with perfect play his current squad could turn in a win, his second.

"They'll be scared," he said, "and they should be. But the scrimmage against the Chicago Bears helped them. They found out the pros are human beings and they won't be as scared as they could be.

SEES IMPROVEMENT

"I could see their improvement in practice after that scrimmage. They didn't have the best attitude going into it, but since then they've worked even harder."

The Packers were at full strength for their first All-Star appearance since 1945. Halfback Paul Hornung, the league's most valuable player last year, returned from military service and was expected to be an offensive starter.

Graham was pleased at the prospect of running an offensive team as big as the pros since he has two huge fullbacks, Bob Ferguson of Ohio State and Earl Gros of Louisiana State, and a big halfback, Curtis McClinton of Kansas. But he lost another burly halfback in Syracuse's Ernie Davis, sidelined by an undiagnosed illness, who was the winner of the Heisman trophy last year.

Graham said he would use Ron Bull of Baylor at the inside halfback to replace Davis and he also could appear at the flanking halfback post, a position he shared during the training season with Lance Alworth of Arkansas and Leroy Jackson of Western Illinois.

It was probable that Graham would alternate his trio of quarterbacks, Bobby Ply of Baylor, Roman Gabriel of North Carolina State, and John Hadl of Kansas. He said that any of the three would be able to run all of his offensive formations, including the spread.

Observers anticipated that the All-Stars would emphasize passing since Gabriel, 6 feet 4 inches tall, was rated one of the best passers to come from the college ranks in years.

STAR RECEIVERS

There are numerous standout receivers on the all-stars too, notably Red Carolan of Idaho, Charles Bryant of Ohio State, Greg Mather of Navy, Bill Hull of Wake Forest, Gary Collins of Maryland and Bill Miller of Miami, Fla.

"We're just as big as they are," Graham said. "But we lack experience. If we play up to our capabilities, and if we make a minimum of errors, we can upset them."

Regatta This Weekend Ends Skippers' Siesta

The racing sailor swings back into action tomorrow, ending the summer siesta that began on June 18, and the event, a two-day regatta, is under the sponsorship of the San Francisco Yacht Club.

Tomorrow the handicap divisions will be the center of attraction and on Sunday the class boats will supply the derring-do. Start and finish line for both days will be off Knox buoy, off the west side of Angel Island, which, spectatorwise, is limited to the race committee and a few disinterested sea gulls.

Cruising Club "A" will head the parade tomorrow at the rather early hour of 10:15 a.m.

On Sunday, many of the class sailors will have to hit the deck at even an earlier hours as their first starting gun, for the Triton class, is at 9:40 a.m. And for the many classes that follow, the starter's gun will blast off every five minutes until 10:50 a.m. when the final grouping of Sea Horse, Pacific Clipper and Carinita join the fray. One of the largest fleets of the season should turn out as, being YRA sanctioned, the season's championships are involved and, too, after the long layoff, the sailing buff craves action.

A few highlights of the mid-season point standings:

In Cruising Club A, Jim Michael's Baruna leads with 26½, Tim Moseley's Orient is a close second with 24½. In "B" it is a neck 'n' neck battle between Bob White's Kandu and Emmett Rixford's Annie Too, 58 vs. 56½. It is even tougher in "C," Tony Souza's Nautigal, 43¼, Hank Easom's Serenade, 43, Ted Stephens' Debit, 41 and Bob Potter's Touche, 40¼.

Raiders Mentally Ready For Opener

SANTA CRUZ (UPI) — The Oakland Raiders have completed preparations for their exhibition season opener against the Dallas Texans tomorrow night in Atlanta, Ga.

"We are mentally ready," said Marty Feldman, coach of the American Football League team. "But I don't know if we are technically ready."

Rookie defensive end Julius Varnardo was released yesterday, bringing the Raider roster down to 46.

NOSTALGIA, ARNICA

Old Timers Romp At Candlestick

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—The New York Giants of Polo Grounds memory take the field tomorrow against yesteryear's San Francisco Seals in an old timers game packed with nostalgia and arnica.

A crowd of 30,000 is expected to turn out at Candlestick Park, home of the transplanted National League club, to watch such former stars as Carl Hubbell, Dick Bartell, Bobby Thomson and Ernie Lombardi once more in Giant flannels.

And playing for the Seals—onetime keystone of the Pacific Coast League—will be such stars as Dolph Camilli, Lefty Gomez, the DiMaggio brothers and Earl Averill.

Leo Durocher or Bill Terry will manage the Giants.

Each piloted the club to more than one pennant in the green old park beside the Harlem River.

PENNANT WINNERS

The Seals will be jointly handled by Lefty O'Doul and Joe Gordon, who were pennant winners for the Coast League club.

About 50 players actually will participate while looking on will be about 50 who are too old. Eighty-two-year-old Chief Meyers, who was Christy Mathewson's catcher, and Hans Lobert, 81, are among the senior Giants slated to attend.

And then there will be Hughie Critz, Fred Snodgrass, Emil (Irish) Meusel and Rosy Ryan . . . just to name a few other Giants from the John McGraw era.

A special bat has been obtained for Averill, the former Cleveland and Detroit outfielder, who wired the Giants that the present day mace is "too thin and too light."

Joe DiMaggio and Ernie Lombardi are definitely slated to hit. The DiMag, now 47, legged out an inside the park home run during an old timers game at Yankee Stadium last Saturday. And Lombardi hit a ground rule double in the same contest.

Hubbell and Gomez are slated to pitch to at least one hitter apiece. And plans call for Smead Jolly and Paul Waner each to hit for the Seals.

TWO INFIELDS

The Giants have two sets of infields drawn up. One consists of Whitey Lockman, Ed Stanky, Dick Bartell and Bobby Thomsom; the other has Joe Orengo, Alex Kampuuris, Jack Lohrke and Johnny Vergez. And in the outfield will be such men as Henry Sauer, Hank Lieber, Joe Moore, Augie Galan, Monte Irvin and Don Mueller.

Catching for the ex-Polo Grounders will be handled by Harry "The Horse" Danning, Gus Mancuso, Wes Westrum and Lombardi.

At least two innings have been scheduled during the hour and a half program starting at noon.

Perfect Record For 'Ink Spots' In Little League

Not many baseball clubs can boast of a record of 19 victories in 19 games, but that's the record of the Ink Spots, recently crowned champions of the Gallinas Valley Little League minor division.

Managed by former semi-pro star Bono Dell'Era and coached by Ben Dell'Era, the Ink Spots were sparked by pitcher Jerry Tappero who hurled two no-hitters. In the six games he worked Tappero allowed only four hits. Other top pitchers for the club were Jeff Calhoon (6-0), Dave Dell'Era (5-0) and Dickie Collier (4-0).

Manager Dell'Era also gave praise to Mike Dito, Dave Kutlik, Bob Wendt, Rex Powell and Pat Dell'Era, who hit a grand slam homer to win a crucial game.

Sponsors of the Ink Spots are Gilbert Shirley Printers of San Rafael.

RESULTS OF NELSON VACATION IN MEXICO

San Rafael insurance broker T. Robert Nelson and his family caught these sailfish off the Mexican coast north of San Blas while on a two-month vacation. Left to right are Nancy Jean, William, Robert and Eunice. The Nelsons will stay in the Guadalajara area until Labor Day. They say they have met several other Marinites in Mexico, including Mr. and Mrs. Maurice J. Woodman of Kent Woodlands and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Barfield of Bolinas.

Tips For Deer Hunters

First is the oft-repeated injunction: Be certain that you practice the basic rules of safety. Treat every gun as though it is loaded; look before you squeeze the trigger and never mix alcohol with gunpowder. Never set a loaded gun in an automobile; never crawl under a fence or over rocks or through brush with the safety off on your rifle.

If you are not able to hire a guide on your deer hunting trip, at least hunt with another nimrod who is familiar with the country. A knowledge of the runways, and favorite feeding grounds is of great value. Certain signs most oldtimers recognize—they can tell fresh trail signs. Freshly cropped twigs of a certain type are sure indications. Deer are usually found in country which is thick with underbrush and is nearly impenetrable by man. They have their feeding times like all wild things, mainly in the open. And they have their salt licks and watering holes, but remember that during the daytime deer usually take to the heavy brush and sleep; feeding at night, frequently when there is a full moon.

GENERALLY SPEAKING, it is best to hunt deer during the dark of the moon, when the animals are obliged to feed during the daylight hours. Then is when you should be on your stand at dawn or between an hour before sunset and dark. If new to the area you have chosen to hunt in, it is wise to scout out the region, pick your tree or rock or place to take your stand, by the trail guides, and get settled BEFORE dawn breaks.

An exception to the above: If you or one of your party has a well trained dog, it isn't necessary to confine your hunting to the dawn or dusk hours. A well trained dog will rout the deer out from his cover at all times. The hunters should take stands along a draw or canyon with the object of covering the open spaces the deer must pass after being routed by the dog. Start the dog working from the bottom of the ravine to work up the scent. If the pooch is good you will soon be hearing his baying and then the noise of the fleeing buck as he crashes through the brush.

BUT, PLEASE take note, a deer that has been chased by a dog should be gutted at once or the meat may spoil. The experienced hunter will, in any case, cut the throat and bleed and disembowel his kill as soon as possible. Bend down a springy branch of a tree. Tie the hind legs of the deer together and pull the carcass up and off the ground and proceed to dress out your animal. In case there are no trees suitable in the area, the deer may be laid on its side on a slight slope, with the head uphill. Whether you bleed your deer by cutting across the throat or stick your knife in toward the heart, near the point where the neck and briskets meet, twisting the knife to sever the major blood vessels around the heart, it is well to work the hind legs back and forth in a pumping motion, and do the same with the front legs; thus forcing the blood out.

SPACE WON'T permit me to go into details of dressing your deer for the trip overnight in camp or on the trip back home, but tons of venison are spoiled each year because hunters have not properly COOLED the carcass, but have tossed it on the fenders of their car for all the world to see and admire. That sort of thing might tickle your ego, but it is one of the surest ways to have sour meat. Get your deer to camp, skin it before it cools, quarter the meat and cool it. In dry weather hang the meat in an airy place overnight, if possible. It will chill and "case" the surface so that it will be safe to pack it home the next day.

ONE LAST suggestion: When skinning your deer use the handle of your knife to hammer down between carcass and skin much more than the blade of the knife to cut it loose. You will get a better piece of meat that way. As one oldtimer once told me: "Punch and pull, instead of cutting!"

Don't forget—the main way to have fresh instead of sour meat is to allow that carcass to COOL. And that's a very brief essay on deer hunting and dressing. Goodbye, good luck and go get your share of venison. Adios, Amigos!

Trick Golf Exhibition In Novato

A public exhibition of trick golf shots will be held at 2 p.m. Sunday at the Indian Valley Golf Club in Novato.

Chuck Lewis and his daughter, Linda, 11, will perform the trick shots that have made them nationally famous, said Norman Burns, Indian Valley club pro.

Among the display shots will be one that Linda has performed several times on television. She will shoot the ball from the mouth of a spectator (provided one volunteers). She performed the same shot, hitting the ball from Andy William's mouth on the Steve Allen Show and from Gary Moore's mouth on his show, on television, Burns said.

Other shots to be performed by Lewis include hitting two balls simultaneously with a club in each hand, another with a rifle butt and another with a seven foot driver, Burns said.

Lewis also will hold a driving contest with anyone in the crowd, however, as a handicap, Lewis will have his arms tied to his side and be handcuffed, according to Burns.

4th Marin Swim Championships Slated Aug. 14

The meet is open to all boys and girls in Marin County and entry blanks may be obtained at Albert Field and Terra Linda and San Rafael high schools. Age groupings will be 10 and under, 11-12 and 13-14 years. Medals will be presented for the first three places in each event.

Larker Fined $75 For Bat 'Spree'

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Houston first baseman Norm Larker was notified by National League President Warren Giles today that he has been fined $75 for his bat throwing antics in Wednesday night's game with the Braves in Milwaukee.

At the same time, outfielder Al Spangler of the Colts was notified he had been fined $25 for joining Larker in a dispute with plate umpire Augie Donatelli over a called second strike in the 8th inning.

Larker was ejected. After reaching the dugout, he emptied the Houston bat rack, tossing 18 bats onto the playing field.

Last Night's Fights

For Beach Promenaders

FLYING PLEATS, polka dots on bright colors, and cool, soft Antron jersey is an inviting way to promenade on the beach this summer. And all of this is combined in Rose Marie Reid's season charmer called "Celeste." It features a one-piece pleat-skirt dressmaker type styling with an easy fitting bodice and a semi-low back exposure.

THIS BEACH BEAUTIFYING twosome "Monique" and "Mimi" from Rose Marie Reid offers a one-piece shorted style swimsuit with "Monique" and a two-piece of the briefest maillot in "Mimi." Both are fashioned in cool, flattering, and very youthful polka dot Antron Jersey.

'DAUPHINE' is this latest Rose Marie Reid contribution which has a belted, little boy short style playsuit and swimsuit combination in gently flowing Antron Matte Jersey. The gently bloused bodice front buttons. This is the fashion woman who wants her swimwear to beautifully cover her figure without tension or great exposure.

'It's Legal' Showing Set At Luncheon

Not one "guest with a viewpoint," but eight wives and one daughter of attorneys and jurists gathered for the American Bar Assn. have been invited by Mrs. John Bellamy Jr. to be the guests on Thursday at 12:30 p.m. at "Fashions with a View" from the Ondine in Sausalito, when it fashionably says, "It's Legal This Fall."

Invitations have been extended to Mrs. Robert Kennedy, wife of the Attorney General; Mrs. J. Edward Day, wife of the Postmaster General, and to Mrs. Tom C. Clark, Mrs. William J. Brennan Jr. and Mrs. Byron White, wives of Associate Justices of the United States Supreme Court; Lady Parker, wife of the Chief Justice of England; Mrs. John Satterfield, whose husband is to be installed as president of the American Bar Assn.; Miss Thalia Smith, official hostess for her father, the outgoing president, Sidney Smith, and Agnes O'Brien Smith, San Francisco attorney.

Showing a special collection of designs for fall from the leading American designer will be Mrs. John Willcutt, Mrs. Hal Wagner, Mrs. William Donohoe, and Yvonne Buchi.

Proper Play Clothes Lend To Enjoyment Of Leisure

By CAROL COLBY

It's surprising how many times a woman who displays a wonderful fashion awareness in her choice of dress clothes will settle for "any old thing" when it's time for fun. Actually, the proper play clothes can do much to heighten your enjoyment of any leisure time activity from active sports to informal entertaining at home.

One fashion you'll see a lot of this year are stretch pants which continue to rise in popularity because they give such a marvelous freedom of action and keep their neat-as-a-pin look all day or evening long. For active sports, wear them with a trim tailored blouse or sweater. For informal entertaining combine them with a prettily ruffled blouse. If you have a trim, youthful figure, you may want to include some stretch shorts in your summer wardrobe too. Both pants and shorts are being shown in a wide variety of colors, including luscious limes and oranges as well as white and black.

Another style, which I believe will be very popular this year, is the elongated shirt-type dress. You'll discover it in both knee and regular lengths in floral printed silk crepes, rayons and the new wash'n wear synthetics.

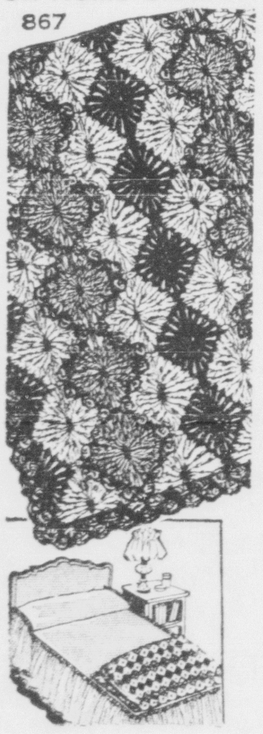

Be especially careful to keep accessories simple — and in keeping with your sports ensemble. Jewelry? One small piece if you wish—but leave earrings at home!

MRS. BML., RESEDA, We live in a "young" tract neighborhood where the costume of the day is usually slacks or shorts. I like to pretty up a bit for my husband's homecoming, but a street dress seems too elaborate, especially when almost everyone else stays in slacks all evening long.

ANSWER: You are right about the street dress and also very right about wanting to look pretty for your husband. Why not slip into a crisp cool cotton, or one of the new wash 'n wear dresses? You'll look both comfortably casual—and so nicely feminine.

Tam Valleyan Leaving Marin

By MAYBELLE SPECKMANN

One of Tamalpais Valley's most popular residents, Mrs. Margot Reynolds, and her daughter, Kathy, 11, will leave Aug. 11 to live in San Diego.

Margot is well known for her many activities and interests. A dancer with the San Francisco Ballet for seven years, she has participated in many productions of the Tam Valley Players and starred in the annual "Rhubarb Review."

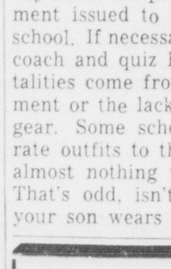

She plays the piano, is an ardent classical music and hi-fi enthusiast and paints landscapes, seascapes and still life in oils. Great animal lovers, she and Kathy were noted for their large number of pets—cats, dogs, birds and fish.

In San Diego Margot plans to work with her brother, Richard Carter, and his wife, the former Nancy Johnson, both former stars with the San Francisco Ballet who have founded their own ballet company and school in San Diego.

"I'll probably do some teaching," she said, "and when the company goes on a tour in Mexico next summer, I'll be business manager." She is also hoping to get a degree in psychology at San Diego State College.

Entertains Visitors

Mrs. Robert McIntyre of Mill Valley entertained Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Turner of Milwaukee, who are visiting relatives en route to their home in Florida.

Football Is Great But Dangerous Sport–So Protect Your Player

Football is our greatest American sport. But it is a dangerous sport. Thousands of players are injured each year. Do you have a boy who plays football? Then do all you can to protect him.

Medical Exam. Have your family doctor give your boy a complete physical exam this month before the season starts. Don't let him play unless the doctor gives his okay. I'm sorry, but you cannot rely on the exams team doctors give. Often they're hasty. Usually they're incomplete.

Equipment. Talk with your boy about the protective equipment issued to players at his school. If necessary, corner the coach and quiz him. Many fatalities come from poor equipment or the lack of protective gear. Some schools give first rate outfits to the varsity and almost nothing to the scrubs. That's odd, isn't it? Be sure your son wears his full set of equipment in every scrimmage.

Schedule. Check with your boy about the opponents he will face. Are there any games with big - time teams which greatly outclass his group? Will he have to play against boys who are much larger than he is? Has too long a schedule been arranged? If there is reason to doubt the schedule, withdraw your son. Bad scheduling is the source of many football injuries.

Doctor at games. Find out if a licensed medical doctor will be on the bench at all games this fall. Make sure the doctor will be there to go out on the field and examine injured players. Each season ghastly mistakes are made by well-meaning amateurs who do the wrong things to boys who've been hurt. If there's any doubt about the quality of first aid and medical care, don't let your boy play. Better an angry son than a crippled one.

Marin P-TA Officials To Aid Polio Program

Marin County Parent-Teacher Assn. officials met Wednesday with the K.O. Polio Committee of the Marin Medical Society to pledge support to the Sabin oral vaccine immunization program scheduled this fall in Marin County.

In a meeting at the Medical Society headquarters, the P-TA leaders promised to help enlist volunteers to staff clinic centers and to set up and coordinate a system of telephone volunteers to call all Marin residents prior to the three K.O. Polio Sundays, Sept. 23, Nov. 4 and Dec. 9.

In areas where there are no P-TAs, they will work with existing parents' groups and with mothers' guilds in parochial schools. It is estimated that 800 volunteers will be needed for the telephone campaign.

Representing the P-TA were Mrs. William Campbell, vice chairman of the 14th District of the California Congress of P-TAs; Mrs. Peter Ferrarese, health chairman of the Marin County P-TA; Mrs. Bert C. Corona, health chairman of the San Rafael P-TA Council; Mrs. H. B. Hennessy, president of the Ross Valley P-TA Council; Mrs. M. S. Dorinson, health chairman of the Ross Valley Council, and Mrs. Bryce Anderson, San Rafael Council press chairman.

Dr. Eugene Shatkin of San Rafael, chairman of the Medical Society K.O. Polio Committee, headed the meeting. Also attending were Dr. John Lee, chairman of Community Relations for the K.O. Polio Committee, and Dr. Leo Wagner, co-chairman of the sub-committee responsible for staffing the clinic centers.

Forsyths Entertain Before Trip To Orient, Australia

Mr. and Mrs. Archer Forsyth will hold open house at their home in Mill Valley Sunday to say goodbye to friends before leaving Thursday aboard the "Arcadia" for the Orient and Australia.

Points on their itinerary include Honolulu, Japan, Hong Kong and Manila. They will spend a month in Australia, leaving Sydney in October on the "Canberra" for a return trip via New Zealand and Vancouver, B.C.

THEY WILL visit one day in New Zealand with Mrs. Neville G. Adams, formerly of Mill Valley, and her daughters, Michelle, 5, and Julie, two months.

Friends from San Francisco will stay in the Forsyth house while they are away.

Wednesday Mrs. Forsyth was honored at a luncheon given by Mrs. Howard Houchard at her Mill Valley home. Guests were Mesdames William Gande, Arthur Sestak, Charles Bassett, Daisy White and Matilde Walburn of Mill Valley; Jack Gillen and Morrison Goodrich of San Rafael; Violet Haack of Fairfax; and Martin Gordon of Los Altos.

WEDNESDAY EVENING Mr. and Mrs. Richard De Lew of Corte Madera entertained at a supper party honoring the Forsyths. Mrs. De Lew is president of the Tamalpais High School chapter of the American Field Service; Forsyth is coordinator for the chapter, and his wife is membership chairman.

Other guests were officers and members of the chapter; Messrs. and Mesdames Donald E. Oman, Jay I. Blayney and Irvin Sutley, all of Mill Valley. Also present was Miss Irene Burrowes, a house guest of the Forsyths, and Richard De Lew Jr.

Travels And Travelers Are Tiburon Summer Highlights

Tiburon residents Margaret Lucas and Anne Ellinwood of Hill Haven have returned home from a two week vacation in Hawaii, where they met many of their friends and former neighbors from Marin.

Their friends Rowland and Virginia Darnell are now living in Hawaii, where Rowland is executive director of the planning department. He supervised the writing of the Tiburon master plan while with the Marin planning staff.

Anne Ellinwood ran into Mrs. Michel Abramson, formerly of Tiburon, and Dr. and Mrs. Donald Bittner of Tiburon, all of whom were former neighbors of the travelers. Anne also saw Mrs. Robert Sitkin of Belvedere and Mrs. Wesley Costello, who formerly lived in Belvedere. Mrs. Sitkin, who rented the George T. Davis home in Hawaii for three months, will return to Belvedere at the end of the month.

MR. AND MRS. Robert D. Evans and their son, David, of the Belvedere Lagoon, have returned from spending a few weeks visiting the Seattle fair, Victoria and Vancouver, B.C., and Crater Lake.

The Evanses were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Taylor in Seattle, and cruised on Lake Union and across Lake Washington on the Taylors' yacht. They also visited their friends the Robert Stoakes in Tacoma who also took the Evanses on a cruise, this time on Puget Sound.

MR. AND MRS. JOSEPH A. Johnson of Tiburon, are entertaining Mrs. William St. Clair, Mrs. Johnson's daughter-in-law, and Mrs. St. Clair's mother, Mrs. Peter Van de Ven of Eindhoven, Netherlands, for a week. Mrs. St. Clair is from Panorama City, in the San Fernando Valley.

MR. AND MRS. Benjamin Gage Miller and their four children, Kathie, Martha, Nancy and John, have moved into the Robert G. Temby home in Belvedere which they have bought. Kathie and Martha will attend the Dominican Convent in San Rafael. Nancy and John will attend school in the Reed School District. The Millers are formerly from Los Angeles.

MR. AND MRS. Arthur Davey Jr. together with their two children, Charles and Karen of Belvedere, are entertaining Mrs. Davey's sister, Mrs. Carleton Denico of Caribou, Me. She will also visit Dr. and Mrs. Paul Thomas of Sacramento, and her brother and sister-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. Philip Phair in Chicago, on her return to Maine.

San Rafael Family To Live In Europe

Mrs Marianna Townsend of San Rafael, her son, Randy and daughter, Lilla have left Marin to live in Switzerland for one year.

Mrs. Townsend was accompanied on the trip by her sister, Mrs. Porter Murray of Arizona and her two daughters.

They left on the SS Oriana from San Francisco for LeHavre. They will visit Paris for two days, then go to Geneva, where they will rent a home.

After the school year, Mrs. Townsend and the children will continue around the world via the Orient on a ship, then return to San Rafael.

Color, Fabrics Help Decorate Girl's Room

A young lady has a knack for picking up all the feminine tricks in the sub-teen years. She develops very definite tastes about her clothing and becomes very conscious of her personal appearance. Great awareness is evidenced, too, about her home surroundings, especially her own room. This age seems to delight in all things frilly and feminine—pretty pastel colors, ruffled curtains or a girlish print at the windows and, by all means, a dressing table.

Parents may be overwhelmed when approached about this problem of redecorating. However, it's not necessary to junk everything in the room and start from scratch. Color, the most important factor in decorating, is inexpensive to come by.

THE SHOPPING won't be difficult, either. Long gone are the days of dull bedroom fashions. Bedspreads are prettier than ever, and have the added features of easy care. Curtains, either to match or to harmonize, are readily available. Even bath towels can become part of the over-all harmony of the room.

If hand-me-down furniture is used in the room, it can achieve a sparkling new look by repainting it to fit the new color scheme in the room. For a distinctive touch, a stencil design might be added or even decals may be used to decorate the piece. If the budget calls for new furniture, you'll have no trouble locating it. Furniture manufacturers in all price ranges have recently introduced special pieces for the young ladies.

TOP FAVORITES seem to be white wood pieces. Some of the new beds show half-canopies, a feminine touch. A space-saving item, too, would be a poudre, which can serve as a dressing table with mirror up, and a desk when it's closed down.

Don't neglect to provide an area for "things." As all mothers know, this is the age of collecting. Even though there's frequent change-about in the types of collections, the old items are almost never thrown out. Provide adequate shelving for stuffed animals, pottery figurines and the like. Pegboard, a screen or a bulletin board can be used for photographs, invitations and posters.

A Reader's Suggestion Is Worthy Of Serious Effort

Why not have trains—using existing Northwestern Pacific tracks—meet the newly revived Tiburon ferry service?

That's the question raised today in the adjacent letters to the editor column.

Harry Lutgens is a former editor and publisher of this newspaper, and an accomplished writer, among other things.

When we first skimmed over his letter, we chuckled in the mistaken notion he was just being very cleverly facetious.

Then the soundness of his suggestion struck us.

It's so simple it makes us wonder why we—or others—haven't thought of it before now.

Thanks to the recent ruling of the Interstate Commerce Commission, NWP tracks still extend all the way to Sausalito, passing the "front door" of Mill Valley, through the center of Corte Madera and skirting the fringe of Larkspur on the way.

Unfortunately the rails through Ross Valley to San Anselmo and Fairfax have long since been torn up. But the line still serves San Rafael.

Perhaps most important of all, reopening of Puerto Suello tunnel would restore rail connections with the fast-growing northern areas along 101 Highway all the way to Novato.

What a load this could take off our highways; and some of the attractions of ferry riding apply equally to trains.

It will be argued that trains are extremely costly to operate, require huge crews, and so forth.

And it is unfortunately true that the railroad unions have a most unenviable reputation for featherbedding, leading to unnecessarily high costs.

But we can see the possibility of a modest start—just like the ferries in Tiburon are making a modest start in revival.

A rail car of the size and capacity of "The Skunk" train which operates between Willits and Ft. Bragg ought to be obtainable without too great an outlay and running it should be no more costly than a bus.

Let us hope that the same little band of persistent folk who pushed through the revival of ferry service may become interested enough to tackle the problem of reviving train service, to and from the ferries.

Contagious Emotions

Emotions, like infectious diseases, are contagious. Every parent has observed this in his children. Every psychologist knows it too.

Everyone changes. And people are different with different people. Therefore, to deal reasonably with a person with a quick temper it is wise not to let his emotions rub off on you, but to be calm and firm so that you are master of the situation.

HAL BOYLE'S COLUMN

Keeping Up With Joneses Is Good Way To Go Broke

NEW YORK (AP)—Once upon a time a family named Smith bought a house in the suburbs next door to a family named Jones.

Naturally, since they moved in different circles and hadn't been properly introduced, they never spoke to one another.

Their houses to a passing eye would seem as alike as two bubbles in beer foam, but one day Mrs. Smith thought she detected a deeper green in her neighbor's grass.

That night she told her husband:

"Our lawn is positively shabby. You'll have to do something about it. After all, we have to keep up with the Joneses."

That weekend Mr. Smith could be seen tossing grass seed from a five-pound bag. The following weekend Mr. Jones was observed heaving grass seed from a 10-pound bag.

Soon Mrs. Smith decided the family next door had a shinier power lawnmower.

"We can't hold our heads up in his neighborhood unless we keep up with the Joneses," she told her husband.

The following week the Joneses and their child were cutting their grass in a spanking new three-seated lawnmower marked "His," "Hers" and "Ours."

Mrs. Smith noticed this at once and told her husband:

"Our child is underprivileged. We'll have to put a swimming pool in our backyard. We can't let the Joneses get ahead of us."

The first day Smith swam in his pool he saw workmen next door building a larger swimming pool there and putting an addition on the garage. Mrs. Jones had ordered an extra car.

The neighbors were never quite sure later whether it was Mrs. Jones or Mrs. Smith who hired the first butler ever seen in the community.

Neither was Mr. Smith. All he could remember was his wife's constant complaint, "After all, we have to keep up with the Joneses."

WELL, THE whole race for equality collapsed when Mr. Smith had to go into court and declare himself bankrupt. There he was astonished to see his neighbor, Jones, also filling out bankruptcy papers.

"What brought you here?" he inquired. And Jones, who was nearsighted and couldn't have told his neighbor from Adam, replied:

"WE WERE getting along all right until some spendthrift smart alecs moved in next door to us, and my wife decided we couldn't let them get ahead of us. That was our whole trouble—trying to keep up with the Smiths. How about you?"

"If I told you," sighed Mr. Smith, "you wouldn't believe me."

Moral: When you try to ape the other fellow, you always make a monkey of yourself.

Trains Should Meet The Ferries

EDITOR,

Last Saturday while working in the garden of my tax high home on the hill in San Rafael, where even the view of Tamalpais increases the assessed property value, I heard the almost forgotten whistle of a train. Peering down through the shimmering sunshine, I saw the coaches and engine, creeping through the industrial area, whistling proudly for the crossings as if to say, "Remember me?"

It carried me back in thought 30 years, when the railroad was the lifeline between Marin and the City. About 7,000 commuters daily used the trains and ferry boats. The run from San Rafael to the City took 50 minutes. Passengers had their favorite groups and seats. The favorite pastime was criticizing the railroad.

Then came the Bridge.

While the time of travel was not cut materially, the private automobile gave more departure and arrival flexibility. The trains and ferries, after a struggle to survive, quit. Now, because of the tremendous flow of traffic over the bridge and highways there is talk of another bridge and more highways or some form of mass transportation.

Marin is excluded for the present from the Bay Area Rapid Transit System, but it is becoming a reality in other counties. Ferry service from Tiburon to the City is a reality. That passenger train last Saturday was a reality. The tracks it ran over from Tiburon to San Rafael are a reality.

All that remains to make mass transportation from Marin to the City a reality is connecting trains to the ferries. This could cost far less than building another bridge and more highways to and in Marin.

How To Judge Loser Of Fight

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

Even with recurring reports of death in the ring there is not much point to outlawing boxing so long as fighting continues to be the widely accepted method for settling disputes in saloons, in schoolyards, in ball parks, in homes, and between nations.

Exception can be taken, however, to the manner in which winners are chosen in the ring. Flashy performance in the early rounds can build up points that will win the bout for the man who may be limp and pitiful in the final round. Since the object of fighting is to render a fellow human unconscious, it would seem that the loser should be the one adjudged to be the nearer to unconsciousness (or death) at the final bell.

I-J Should Print Election Special

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

May I suggest that a few days before each election a special section of your newspaper be devoted entirely to articles about election issues.

By printing views on bond issues and candidates' statements over a relatively long period of time, more reader attention may be devoted to each one. However, there probably is a tendency for readers to procrastinate in making voting decsions and to be unable to find helpful articles in old papers.

You might continue to run articles as in the past, but save the plates. Then you could run ALL election information "at the last minute" in a special election section as a service to the community.

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

An irate wife nailed her errant husband trying to sneak into the house undetected at four A.M. "How dare you," she demanded, "barge in at this hour half drunk?" The unfortunate husband mumbled, "Sorry, my chickadee, but I ran out of money."

"Together," the excellent publication of the Methodist Church, tells of an old-time circuit-riding preacher who inadvertently aroused the ire of the biggest bully in a frontier town. The bully rode his horse into the back yard of the preacher's temporary abode and announced, "Parson, you've got me to lick or get out pronto from this neck of the woods."

The parson calmly seized the bully by the seat of his pants and the nape of his neck and deposited him over the fence. The bully picked himself up gingerly and meekly murmured, "And now, Parson, if you'll hand me my mare over the fence, I'll be proceeding on my way."

A reader who doesn't seem to care how he spends his time has fallen to speculating on how the ghost of Hamlet's father would behave if he came back to earth today. "I can see him now," he boasts, "registering at the Ectoplazma Hotel, breakfasting on Ghost Toasties, riding out to Aqueduct in time for the second wraith, and telling friends, 'I specter see one more revival of 'Charlie's Haunt' before I dissolve."

What our reader doesn't seem to know is that his ghost has moved permanently to New York. He's taken apparition with Phantom Books.

REMEMBER WHEN

10 YEARS AGO

Auditor Leon A. deLisle won supervisorial backing of his plan to probe financial and practical aspects of establishing a county car pool.

Architect Rolland B. Hammond produced a sketch of a rambling form of civic center to be west of Albert Field, endorsed by objectors to the courthouse annex project.

Three alternate sites for the proposed courthouse annex were proposed by San Rafael Chamber of Commerce directors, who preferred the Tamalpais School for Boys, a San Pedro Road tract east of city limits, and a location between First and Taylor, B and D streets.

20 YEARS AGO

Water for Marinship was assured when Marin Municipal Water District was notified from Washington that top priority had been given production of 56,000 feet of 12-inch cast iron concrete-lined pipe for the district.

Preliminary sketches by architect Rolland B. Hammond of a $150,000 county health center at Fourth Street and Grand Avenue, San Rafael, were approved by Marin supervisors.

Marin Municipal Water District was behind schedule on expansion, and delaying production of water for shipyard and housing development, through loss of its priority rating on pipe and materials.

I-J REPORTER'S NOTEBOOK

By AL BOCK

It Is Husband's Duty To Guide Home Diet Along Healthy Paths

A HOME WITHOUT health foods is not a happy one.

This is a declaration which I've had some difficulty convincing my wife of—and some other people. She even goes so far as to say I am a nut and never pass up a chance to reform innocent guests at our home by babbling on about the necessity of organic foods.

Of course, this is absurd.

Most of our weekend guests are already dedicated followers of the sensible cookery of Adelle Davis.

Except my wife's unimaginative relatives. I have recently launched an educational program to persuade them of the delights of brains and liver, wheat germ and blackstrap molasses.

ONE OF THE MOST difficult subjects I encountered was her brother, a sort of man who came to dinner and stayed for six weeks. Unfortunately, he left without touching any of the good things offered him such as rose hip jam and pigs feet.

I must admit my wife employs and even advocates several proper methods such as cooking vegetables unpeeled and unsalted, and preserving vegetable juices. She even keeps our own yogurt culture going.

We once had plans to grow our own carrots, onions and mushrooms on our Fairfax hillside, but it was too troublesome to push aside the shrubs and flowers crowding the paths and terraces. (I should investigate the uses of the many roots and blooms tumbling everywhere.)

MY OWN ENDEAVOR to create muffins from wheat germ and molasses was reluctantly tolerated, and I smartly went on to broil some lamb's brains straight out of the pages of "Let's Cook It Right." This was meant to be a surprise but instead caused a minor household crisis.

We got through the brains finally, and with some admission that they were acceptable after all. But I somehow got the idea I wasn't to be allowed to repeat them. I proceeded, rather, to prepare a delicacy of eggplant.

This was undertaken conveniently, I thought, at a time when more freeloading relatives turned up, and I decided to use the event to further my health food campaign. The result, however, was not met with general applause.

THERE WAS MUCH complaining and muttering that I was in the way in the kitchen and interfering with the less wholesome veal scallopini. It was broadly hinter I should quit and try the eggplant another day.

But we health food addicts are not easily discouraged, and I persisted, convinced the production would be beneficial to all.

The result was greeted by a grim silence. I demonstrated the pleasures of eggplant by eating generous helpings, but the rest thought it only a strange whim to be avoided.

I don't intend to preach a straight and narrow diet of wheat and wild honey, and I'll go along with a chocolate mousse any day—as long as there's plenty of milk to restore the calcium in the bones.

Nonetheless, my wife continues to view my endeavors with considerable suspicion. She calls my health food program another of my "liberal fallacies" and points out that the husband of another Davis fan is often sick.

JAMES MARLOW

Nothing Certain At All About Much Discussed Tax Cut Proposals

WASHINGTON (AP) — Relax the tax?

For weeks Washington has been chewing on a bundle of questions about the idea of cutting taxes to help the economy.

Would it help? There's disagreement. Who should get it—lower income peope or those in the higher brackets? Disagreement on that, too.

Will President Kennedy recommend it? He has indicated he might decide about the middle of this month whether to ask an immediate cut or ask one later which would be effective next Jan. 1.

He said he'd have to wait on making up his mind until the economic indicators for July are in.

EVEN IF KENNEDY should recommend a cut, would Congress go along? At this moment Congress doesn't know.

One thing is sure: If Kennedy does propose a cut, two very conservative southern Democrats—Sen. Harry Byrd of Virginia and Rep. Wilbur Mills of Arkansas—will be key figures in any congressional decision.

Earlier this year Kennedy asked Congress to approve a tax revision (not a tax cut) bill he offered. His idea was that it would increase the government's revenue.

The full House passed it in March in a form that would give the Treasury a gain of $120 million in revenue. But, before it could get up to the full Senate for a vote, it had to go through Byrd's Finance Committee.

It came out of there Tuesday on its way to the full Senate, but in a form that would cost the government $750 million a year in revenue. So that's up in the air.

MEANWHILE MILLS' House Ways and Means Committee began hearing, behind closed doors, witnesses testify on what they think of the state of the economy.

These witnesses are from business and labor and some are economists. What they think—or, rather, what Mills' committee thinks of what they say—will be a factor in deciding on a tax cut, if Kennedy suggests it.

Kennedy reportedly has been much concerned with what the reaction of Byrd and Mills might be if he asks for a cut now, since they, because of their jobs as chairmen, are two of the most powerful men in Congress on this question.

And there are some other factors to consider: Would a cut now make the people jittery that the economy must be in rocky shape to require this kind of remedy?

And, this is an important one, suppose Congress cut taxes this year and the economy got worse next year. What remedy would Congress have then?

State's Factory Paychecks Grow

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Pay checks for California factory workers in June were bigger than ever. They averaged $113.12 a week and $2.80 an hour.

State statistics also show the average pay of a factory hand went up almost $1 a week from May and was $4.32 higher than a year ago. Ship repair, aircraft and autos notched the largest increases, according to the figures released Tuesday.

The average factory employee worked 40.4 hours a week in June.

Strong Player Knows When One Leads Toward Weakness

BRIDGE — FRIDAY ....

If you have a small infant, wait until he learns to talk before you teach him to lead toward strength. Attempts to teach this valuable lesson at an earlier stage have been futile in the majority of cases. Don't teach a lead toward weakness until the youngster shows an interest in the birds and bees.

Opening lead — ♡ 5

Here's the sort of hand that shows whether or not South knows about the birds and bees. He must lead toward weakness.

FIRST TRICK

South wins the first trick in dummy with the jack of hearts. He must develop the diamonds to make his contract, and he should casually lead a low diamond from dummy.

That is, he should lead from strength toward weakness.

This play practically forces West to win the first diamond trick.

NO HARM

West cannot do any harm since he cannot continue the attack on hearts. No matter what West returns, South can comfortably knock out the other high diamond and thus win at least two spades, two hearts, three diamonds and three clubs.

The winning play is largely a matter of psychology. East could defeat South by stepping up with the queen of diamonds at the second trick, but no player in his right mind would do this. East naturally expects South to hold the ace of diamonds, and East sees no sense in throwing his queen away.

REVERSED

South is just as well off if the queen and ace of diamonds are reversed. West is allowed to win the first diamond trick, and South is home free.

South may well go down if he leads a club to his hand to tackle the diamonds first from his own hand. As the cards lie, he will lose the first diamond to East. Back comes a heart, setting up West's suit.

West still has the ace of diamonds as the entry to the rest of the hearts.

TIME AND TIDE

Department of Commerce United States Coast and Geodetic Survey, Western District headquarters, Times and heights of tides at San Francisco (Golden Gate):

ALMANAC

Today is Friday, Aug. 3, the 215th day of 1962 with 150 to follow.

The moon is approaching its first quarter.

The morning stars are Mars, Jupiter and Saturn.

The evening stars are Jupiter, Saturn and Venus.

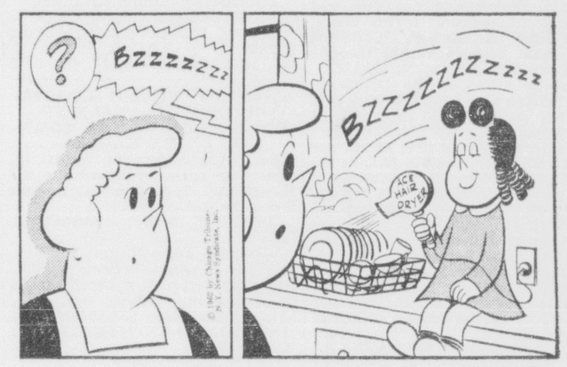

On this day in history:

In 1948, Whittaker Chambers, an admitted ex-Communist, named Alger Hiss, former State Department official, as a onetime key member of the Communist underground in Washington.

A thought for the day: American author Washington Irving said: "A woman's whole life is a history of the affections."

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:

A X Y D L B A A X R
is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophies, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

McInnis Tour To Russia Is Growing

Mayor John F. McInnis said today he had tentative commitments from 20 of the 24 persons needed to make up a Marin Executive Tour to Europe and the USSR.

If the tour is to be made, the 24 singups will be necessary before Aug. 10, as passport proceedings will have to start on that date, said McInnis. The three-week tour will leave Sept. 16, and will visit Brussels, West and East Berlin, Budapest and Paris, besides Moscow, Leningrad and Kiev in Russia.

Those already signed up include businessmen, ranchers, an architect, a doctor, and an accountant, said the San Rafael mayor. He has expressed hope for as wide representation as possible among the delegates.

The tour is being arranged at invitation of the Chamber of Commerce of the USSR.

A get-together for the delegation is planned next Tuesday evening at Peacock Gap Country Club. Vodka and caviar will be served.

Now He Knows Worth Seeing

BALTIMORE (AP)—It happened at Fort McHenry, where Francis Scott Key wrote "The Star-Spangled Banner."

A sightseeing bus from Lancaster, Pa., pulled up. As the passengers munched sandwiches, the driver asked a bystander:

"Is there anything worth seeing in there?"

The bystander was Gilbert A. Crandall, chief of Maryland's tourist agency. He filled in the driver—at some length.

Teachers Can't Knit In Class

CAIRO (AP)—Women teachers will no longer be able to knit in Egyptian classrooms.

A circular to this effect has been issued by the United Arab Republic Ministry of Education.

The circular attributes the poor standards of some pupils in primary schools to teachers who are too busy knitting to watch the children.

New Bank Capital Stock Issue Sold

Organizers of the new Bank of Marin announced today that 81 per cent of their proposed million-dollar capital stock issue has been sold within the first week of offering from temporary offices at 836 Fourth Street, San Rafael.

"We are now especially anxious to sell in small quantities," said W. P. Murray Jr., one of the organizers. "It is the policy to distribute the stock as widely as possible throughout the county and in as small holdings as potential shareholders desire in order to make the Bank of Marin a representative home-owned independent bank.

"There is no minimum for the number of shares subscribed and many small subscriptions, in the five and 10-share category, are being received. Subscriptions are being received from all areas of Marin County."

The termination date has been set at Aug. 20 and the heavy subscription of the past week caused expectation of continued strong response. Subscriptions are being accepted at the San Rafael offices.

Get Ready For Fun Of "Music Man"

By LES DARD

Let's make the rounds of Marin County's movie houses and see what's waiting for us this summer weekend:

RAFAEL THEATER

Re-creating the role he so superlatively managed in the stage musical, Robert Preston turns in a memorable musical performance as the lovable con man who invades River City, Iowa, in 1912 to sell musical instruments and uniforms for a boys' band—and then to skip town before the local yokels learn he doesn't even know music.

We know that despite intentions of larceny, he really loves the country cousins he intends to bilk.

Meredith Wilson wrote the words and music—which include memorable melodies like "You've Got to Know the Territory," "Good Night My Someone" and that wonderful march, "76 Trombones." Direction by Morton DaCosta clings closely to the stage version, but adds luster.

Shirley Jones sings and looks like an angel; Buddy Hackett and Hermione Gingold appear strangely at home in the country. The Buffalo Bills, Harry Hickox, Charles Lane and Mary Wickes fill out a big, wonderful cast.

It's distinctly American, definitely delightful.

101 DRIVE-IN, TAMALPAIS AND NOVATO

It's always a delight to see fine comedy films return for another time around, like reliving fond memories. That's the case at three Marin theaters starting Sunday:

"Pillow Talk," one of the outstanding comedies of the last decade, stars Doris Day and Rock Hudson. Rock plays a young man who croons on the telephone to moonstruck females. Doris is a business-before-pleasure career girl who just happens to share Rock's party line. Comedy assists from Tony Randall and Thelma Ritter.

"Operation Petticoat" stars Cary Grant and Tony Curtis on a long spree of nautical jokes. Cary plays a wartime submarine commander and Tony a lieutenant with an absolute talent for trouble — and piracy.

Clear the decks for fun.

SEQUOIA THEATER

"Boys Night Out" moves to Mill Valley Sunday—the spicy comedy about suburban husbands whose wives foolishly give them one night a week on the town. Kim Novak, Tony Randall, Howard Duff and James (Maverick) Garner star.

After a while, the husbands' night out becomes boring, and they plan something new: renting a swank New York apartment, complete with gorgeous girl.

Janet Blair, Patti Paige and Jessie Royce Landis contribute froth to this farce. If you want relaxation—for adults—this is it.

FAIRFAX THEATER

Another happy return is "The Immoral Mr. Teas," the much-talked about film produced in three days by Pete de Cenzie, who lives in Pacifica. It's a tongue-in-cheekish story about a pleasant eccentric and the shapely—but undressed—damsels he meets.

Bill Teas portrays a man whose job is to deliver false teeth. His real joy in life, however, stems from ardent study of the decollete he spies.

Then one day, one of his own bicuspids needs to be pulled, and the anesthetic has a curious effect on Mr. Teas: he suddenly finds he can mentally undress every female he sees. Quite realistic in this film.

Obviously, not for children.

LARK THEATER

Staying with us another week at the Lark is "Only Two Can Play," Peter Sellers big comedy success.

The toothy British laughmaster plays a lowly librarian whose life is a drudgery—until suddenly a gorgeous blonde walks into his library, and his life.

Sellers forgets about his wife and family, musters his masculinity and plunges into a reckless affair. But despite every effort at cooperation by the blonde (Mei Zetterling) somehow nothing goes right. While this proves very frustrating for Sellers, it means lots of laughs.

Sellers is almost never off the screen.

TIBURON PLAYHOUSE

The birth pangs of a new nation, the battle against intolerance, the anguished love of a Jewish fighter for an American nurse—all are told in the monumental screen epic, "Exodus," now showing.

With 10 name players, 45,000 extras, full color and wide screen, the drama of Leon Uris' best-selling novel comes to life in a powerful screenplay by Dalton Trumbo, expertly produced by Otto Preminger.

Paul Newman plays Ari Ben Canaan, a heroic Hagannah leader. Eva Marie Saint is Kitty Fremont, the widowed American nurse swept up in Israel's troubles. Sal Mineo plays a deranged death camp survivor. Other big names are Lee J. Cobb, Ralph Richardson, Peter Lawford, Gregory Ratoff, John Derek, Hugh Griffith and Felix Aylmer.

MOTOR MOVIES

"Big Red" is Walt Disney's new story of a boy and a dog—an unbeatable duo in film-making. It opens Sunday.

An orphaned lad—Giles Payant—is hired as a kennel boy by crusty Canadian dog-breeder Walter Pidgeon, to work on his estate in the Canadian wilds. The boy's special charge is Big Red, a setter being groomed to win an important show.

Pidgeon, embittered by the loss of a son in the war, regains his humanity and warmth through the antics of his orphan employee.

There are dozens of laughs, lots of sentimentality and a share of real excitement, too.

PACKED WITH ACTION—Academy Award Winners Charlton Heston and Sophia Loren star in Samuel Bronston's "El Cid," which opens for an exclusive Marin County showing at the Tamalpais Theater in San Anselmo and at the new 101 Drive-In Movies four miles north of San Rafael on Wednesday.

Horsemen Vie For Trip To State Championship

The State Horsemen's Assn. regional eliminations for Region 1, in preparation for the state championship to be held in Santa Barbara, will be held Sunday at 9 a.m. at the Novato Horsemen's Arena on Bugeia Lane.

George Cardinet III will be the regional judge at the Novato event.

Milk Price Issue In Legal Churn Of State Rulings

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — Although the battle between grocery stores and drive-in milk dispensing units is still raging in Sacramento superior court, the state bureau of milk control has found a way to avoid a temporary court order enjoining it from enforcing a cent a quart differential in per quart milk prices at the two outlets.

The bureau some time ago ordered a penny differential instead of two cents. This order was opposed by representatives of the drive-ins, who asked for and received the temporary court injunction.

Later, the bureau of milk control issued a new order making the cent a quart differential effective as of Aug. 1.

The original order, which would have been effective June 1 had not the injunction been issued, would have increased the store price of milk by one cent a quart, thereby eliminating the two-cent differential.

The Aug. 1 order, however, restored the original store price, and raised the drive-in price. Consequently, the two-cent differential is maintained, although accomplished by different orders.

Representatives of the bureau of milk control said today they have not been enjoined as fas as the Aug. 1 order is concerned, but of course, would follow the court's order if so enjoined.

Meanwhile the primary question before the court, the bureau said, is whether legal procedures were followed by the bureau of milk control in establishing the differential price in the first place. They admit this involves a constitutional question over the state's right to fix milk prices.

Farmers Told To Avoid Job Discrimination

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—Persons who hire farm labor have been cautioned by John Anson Ford, chairman of the Fair Employment Practices Commission, not to use discrimination in "day hire" workers, or any farm workers.

In a letter to labor contractors and others hiring farm labor, Ford said FEPC protects the job rights of all persons from discrimination on account of race, religious creed, color, national origin, or ancestry.

Only exceptions, Ford pointed out, are agricultural workers residing on the land where they are employed, or on farms which have fewer than five employees.

"At this time of large-scale hiring," Ford stated, "we urge you to re-examine your policies and procedures to be certain no person in your organization rejects an applicant because he is a negro, Mexican-American, Asian American, or of any other specific race, creed or ancestry.

"Discrimination in the treatment, conditions of work, or segregation of employees is also prohibited."

From the tenor of Ford's letter, it appears that the order applies to white farm workers as well as those of other ancestry. It was not many months ago that agricultural unions were voicing protest on the hiring of Mexican labor instead of the union members.

Direct Vet Aid Has Saved $1,000,000

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—Direct state service to veterans, instead of a subsidized service through veterans organizations, has saved the state of California approximately a million dollars since the service was inaugurated in 1960.

This claim was made today by Joseph M. Farber, director of the department of veterans affairs.

Prior to legislative action in 1959, the state subsidized various veterans' organization to provide information concerning claims and rights.

However, a move was made to eliminate such services through the organizations, the legislature approved, and the subsequent savings were made, Farber said.

"This has been accomplished despite predictions that the level of service to the veteran would drop," Farber said. "Actually it has improved to the point where veterans from this state are getting 30 percent of their claims approved by the veterans administration as against a 12 percent national average."

Ross Sewer Tax To Drop 1 Cent

Ross Valley Sanitary District directors Wednesday adopted a budget nearly $3,000 above last year's, but they expect to be able to cut one cent off the tax rate.

The board adopted a fiscal 1963 budget of $13,455, compared with $10,600 for last year. But, said manager Ralph P. Noah, increased assessed valuation will mean the tax rate can be cut from 18 cents to 17 cents per $100 assessed valuation.

Mayor McInnis Tells Goals Of Pay Group

Mayor John F. McInnis of San Rafael explained the objectives of the Assn. of Bay Area Governments during a meeting of the San Anselmo Rotary Club Wednesday.

McInnis said that problems of air and water pollution, rapid transit, land use and recreation areas have been studied in Marin and adjoining counties with no increase in tax rates for the residents involved. The mayor stressed that solutions were expected to be found without interference by centralized governmental participation.

Bolinas-Stinson School Budget Hearing A Bust

A public hearing on the fiscal 1963 budget for the Bolinas-Stinson Union School District Wednesday drew the minimum response from the taxpayers: No one was there but four board members, who waited for 45 minutes and then went home. They plan no further public hearings.

Final action on the budget of $97,880 will be taken at the next meeting of the board Wednesday at 8 p.m. at the school. The budget is $8,320 larger than that of last year.

San Rafael Liquor Store Purchased

The Redwood Room, a retail liquor store at 640 Fourth Street, San Rafael, has been sold by Mrs. Edward J. Cleland to Flori Pesce, 14 Locust Avenue, Kentfield.

The sale was made by Harry Abras of Redmond Realty.

Pesce, previously in business in San Francisco, is expected to take over the store about Sept. 1.

Mrs. Cleland is owner of Gwendolyn's, a women's apparel store in Novato. She will devote her full time to this business.

City Skating Program Opens Registration

Registration for a teen-age skating program, sponsored by the San Rafael Recreation Department, will be held Monday and Tuesday from 1 to 3 p.m. at Albert Field.

The program is planned for Raydine's Skating Rink from 3 to 5 p.m. on Aug. 11. A minimum of 60 persons must register before the activity is definitely scheduled, said recreation director Joseph D. Rodota.

Davis Takes Marinites

Carole L. Hahn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James D. Hahn of 455 Quietwood Drive, and Clair M. Harris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel L. Harris of 2733 Heatherstone Drive, both of Marinwood, have been admitted to University of California at Davis for the fall semester.
